Salvation Army Commissioner Sent to Perfect a Transfer. (BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.)

NEW YORK, March 5.—The latest salvation Army commissioner to reach this country is John A. Carleton, who had control of the banking: insurance, property and legal departments of the international Salvation Army headquarters in London. He arrived on the Majestic. Col. Nicol said that the visit of the commissioners at this functure was to perfect the legal transfer of the property here from the keeping of the commander to his successor. Commissioner Carleton asked to be excused from making any statement in connection with the situation of affairs in this country until he could have time to study the question more fully. "I left London," he said, "last Tuesday, a week ago, on twenty-four hours' notice, and by order of Bramwell Booth, and boarded the Majestic at Liverpool the following day. I very much enjoyed the trip over, with the exception of the last two days out, which were decidedly unpleasant, owing to the ship's battle against wind and wave."

Col. Nicol said that the purpose of Commissioner Carleton was, in short to arrange matters at headquarters here and take charge during the absence of the new commander, who contemplates making a tour of the various tations throughout the country. The commissioner was driven to national headquarters in Fourteenth street, where Eva Booth was awaiting his arrival. A long conference followed, the tesuit of which was not made public.

body, following their officer, Capt. Mimons, and on Tuesday sent a telegram to the Booths at Montclair, announcing themselves as "an independent religious body," and inviting their former leader to assume command.

Ballington Booth at once telephoned an acceptance, sent a former Salvationist, Capt. Seake, to take charge, and straightway the career of the infant organization began with the hiring of a hall, the one selected being the former barracks of the defunct Salvation Army Sea Cliff Corps. It is said that Ballington Booth will at once establish a paper in opposition to the famous War Cry, and that it will be "up to date" in all evangelical matters.

Talk on the Increase of Great Britain's Navy. (BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.)

LONDON, March 5.—(By Atlantic Cable.) Prior to the opening of the debate on the navy estimates in the House of Commons today. John Redmond (Parnellite) declared that, in view of the manner in which Ireland was overtaxed, he would oppose every vote to increase, and insist in each case upon a division.

Sir Charles Dilke thought that the navy programme was inadequate. The navy programme was inadequate. The navy programme was inadequate if a hand would be raised by any other nation to, save Great Britain if she were engaged in a death struggle.

Motley Crowd Leaves for th Yukon Country by Steamer City of Topeka—High Wages and a Good Time Are Sought.

(BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TIMES.) TACOMA (Wash.,) March 5.—(Spe TACOMA (Wash.,) March 5.—(Special Dispatch.) Bloomers have invaded the Yukon country, at least, they are en route there. Half adozen women, attired in bifurcated garments and armed with hunting rifles, left for the Yukon today on the City of Topeka. They expect to make high wages by cooking and sewing at Circle City and Forty Mile. Three of them take sewing machines. The most prominent woman to go to Yukon is Mrs. W. A. Kennedy, who has been conspicuous in society. She accompanies her husband to Circle City, leaving this week. She will don bloomers, and has been practicing with a rifle.

The City of Topeka, leaving today carried a motley crowd of 200 Alaska bound people. Her decks were pilethigh with "outfits," from all of which projected the sharp points of Alaska sleds or stovepipes attached to Yukou stoves. The steamer got in late las night, the crowd going aboard by electric light. It was one of the most curious sights ever witnessed here. The men and women were attired in ever conceivable kind of apparel. During the wait for the boat a dancing party wa organized in the Ocean warehouse While some whistled the music, other tripped the light fantastic in heavy miners' boots.

under orders from the government, as it was feared the students' meeting would be a hotbed for breeding disorders, but this measure proved unavailing, and the police have been kept busy dispersing students' gatherings nearly all day.

Several attempts were made by disorderly paraders to make their way to the United States Consulate, but they were frustrated, as the authorities had special orders to be on the lookout for any demonstration against the property of the United States. Special protection was afforded the building on which the officers of the consulate are located, with a view to the same end. The mob gathered before the building before the police were aware of what was occurring, and stones began to fly from the crowd, with the result that windows were broken. The crowd was cheered on by those in the streets and from the neighboring houses. The police lost no time in charging the rioters, and the mob was speedily dispersed.

There was no violence indulged in in other parts of the city, the demonstrations being confined to noisy clamor, cries of derision against the United States government, and attempts to make speeches. The orators were not allowed to proceed far before the police drove away their hearers and warned the speakers to desist. A number of arrests were made as a result of the defiance of the orders.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—The late washington, march and a hour at which the reports of disorders today in Valencia were received made it impossible to learn whether any of the information had been received here in regard to the trouble. The attack will no doubt create renewed indignation in Congressional circles, and may have the effect of hastening action on the Cuban resolutions when the conhave the effect of hastening action on the Cuban resolutions when the con-ference report is taken up in the Sen-ate on Monday. In this, as in the case of the attack on the consulate at Bar-celoma last Sunday, the Spanish gov-ernment, it is quite likely, will promptly express to the United States its regret for the occurrence, and make a comfor the occurrence, and make a com-plete disavowal of it. Congress May Force Him to Take

(BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TIMES.) WASHINGTON, March 5 .- (Special ispatch.) There is a strong and bitter deeling here against the administration, growing out of Secretary Olney's official announcement on the Cuban question, and the end of it is not yet Cleveland proceeds to ignore the Cuban resolutions and matters should become worse in that unhappy island, Congress will again take a hand and intervene in the war, and put the President in the field in spite of himself. Senator Morgan of Alabama believes that Congress alone has power to de clare that a state of belligerency exists in Cuba, and also that Congress can compel President Cleveland to take command of the United States army, whether he will or not. He cannot get a substitute, as he did in the civil war but must himself act as commander-inchief Both in Republican and Demo cratic circles there is much indignation over Secretary Olney's official note, Senator Cullom said today: "Congress would never consent to sit still if Cuban matters should grow worse. Neither will we be content to let the President sit still and do nothing. We shall wait and see what he will do with the pres-ent resolutions. You know the story of the farmer and the boy up an apple tree. If mild persuasion doesn't accomplish anything, we may have to take means more effective in order to make our executive come off his present perch."

A Democratic Senator said: "Cleve land is after a third term. He got Wall street down on him b ythe Venezuelan message, and now he wants to rehabilitate himself in their graces by pursuing an un-American policy. A number of Wall-street men have inter-ests in Cuba and do not want to see the right of belligerency accorded the insurgents, as they could not recover from Spain in case of the destruction of their property there. Cleveland is of their property there. Cleveland is going to stand by Wall street, and not get the curses of the millionaires, as he did when he sent in his Venezulear

Secretary Olney's statement in behalf Secretary Olney's statement in behalf of the President that the insurgents do not hold any part of Cuba is ridiculed generally in Congress. Mr. Adams, a. member of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs, asserted today that the insurgents hold most of the island of Cuba, and he called attention to the fact that since Gen. Weyler Issued his bloody code and began his persecution of newspaper men, the news of what of newspaper men, the news of what the insurgents are doing comes princi-pally through Spanish sources. GUARDING OUR CONSULATE.

NEW YORK, March 5.—A special to the Herald from Cadiz, Spain, says that numerous civil guards, both horse and foot, took up positions facing the American consulate and occupied the neighboring approaches, owing to the projected students' demonstrations. Others were stationed at various centers in order to prevent any concentration on the part of those engaging in the proceedings. Later on the guards were withdrawn from the streets and some were posted inside the consulate. The government is determined to stop every demonstration. The United States Consul has been received everywhere with marked attention, and he has expressed his extreme gratification at the measures taken by the authorities.

ENGLISH OFFERS OF PRIVATEERS

ENGLISH OFFERS OF PRIVATEERS MADRID, March 5.— Numerous groups of students armed with clubs took part in a patriotic meeting in Ruen Retiro Park today. A strong force of police dispersed them. The police are guarding the University, Veterinary College and Medical College. It is stated here that several English ship-owners have offered to the government to equip privateers on their own account in case of war between Spain and the United States. The government has decided to purchase two additional cruisers. It is stated that the situation in Cuba appears to improve. UNIVERSITIES CLOSED.

REBELS ACTIVE. HAVANA, March 5.—(By Central American Cable.) Capt.-Gen. Weyler visited the military hospitals today and expressed himself as satisfied with the manner in which the wounded and the manner in which the wounded and slok were being cared for, and at the condition of the buildings. Up to date the insurgents have burned thirteen villages and towns in the province of Pinar del Rio. Among them are several important places, including San Juan de Martinez. In addition, they have burned many tobacco-houses, and the extensive sugar estate at Guacamaya.

Carillo and Rojas, the insurgent leaders, at the head of about seven hundred of their followers, recently attacked a company of the Scillia battalion, and the local guerilla force of San Andreas, near Holguin, province of Saniago de Cuba. The soldiers made a brilliant defense and repulsed the rebels with a loss of twenty-five killed. The enemy retired with many wounded.

Capt. Gen. Weyler has issued a circular prohibiting the sale of petroleum and other inflammable articles of like description in the villages of Cuba, and regulating their importation.

The Spanish gunboat Lines, conveying provisions to Jibacoa, found the entrance to the river closed by a chein stretched from bank to bank. The insurgents fixed upon the gunboat, and the latter returned the fire. Troops were sent in pursuit of the insurgents.

A detachment of insurgents belonging to Maceo's forces have captured the fort at Santa Cruz, a small place north fort at Santa Cruz, a small place north of Jibacoa, by unfair means, it is claimed. The insurgents called upon the little garrison to surrender, and the Spanish leader in charge left the fort for the purpose of conferring with the insurgent leader. In the mean while the insurgents surrounded the fort, en-tered and made prisoners of the volunteers defending it; also captured al their arms and the supply of ammuni-tion. The volunteers were later re-leased, and the military Governor of Gens. Prat and Arolas are closely pur suing Gomez, who is now on the limits of the border of the province of Santa Clara, according to the official advices. The situation in the province of Pinar del Rio has greatly improved. It was recently entirely lacking in telegraphic communication, and in garrisons and ters are now in their usual state, ai-though communication is maintained by the heliographic system. The in-surgent leader, Calunga, who was re-ported to have been killed, is still alive. Gen. Melguize has had an engagement at the plantation of Moral ment at the plantation of Moraloc, near Casaguies, this province, with the bands of the insurgents belonging to Maceo's command. The troops dislodged the insurgents from the positions which they occupied, and the Castillos squadron and the Taretces volunteers, in pursuing them, killed eighteen of the enemy, wounding many more. The troops had several wounded.

Col. Martin later had another engagement with the insurgents at the Yero del Rio brings the first detailed information of affairs in that province for several weeks.

The condition of affairs disclosed is little less than appalling. The rich Vuelta Abajo district seems to have been put to the torch, and is apparently reduced to a wilderness. Whole towns have been obliterated and their inhabitants are wandering helpless over the country, many of them starving. The villages and towns of Cabanas, Bethia Honda, San Diego de Lunez, Santa Cruz de los Pinos, Los Palacios, Piso Real de San Diego and San Diego de los Banos are known to be reduced to ashes, and reports of others will bring the number destroyed up to thirteen. All of these were important centers of population and business. The last town which has succumbed to the insurgents' torch is San Juan y Martinez. The tobacco from this town is famous the world over.

When the first column of Spanish troops arrived on the site of the town they found only debris and smoking ashes. A hundred desolate families had taken refuge in poor huts outside of what was once the town, and were waiting hopelessly for any assistance. They were without clothes and without food.

It is true, how-ever, that the disturbance caused by he news of the great disaster and the consequent display of indignation against the government has been greatly increased by the calling out of the army reserves of the class of 1872, which calls 80,000 additional men into

tion. Railroad cars have been demolished, rails torn up and telegraph wires cut, and the police have been beaten and stoned into helplessness. The soldlers have been attacked, the bayonets have been freely used, and men and women, frenzied with wrath, have thrown themselves on the naked steel of the troops. Large numbers of arrests have been made, the troops everywhere are either confined to barracks or oc-have been made, the troops everywhere are either confined to barracks or occupying the streets, and night has been turned into day by torchlight processions, indignation meetings, riotous demonstrations in public squares, and in front of many of the government buildings. This is a summary of what has occurred in a greater or less degree at Milan, Florence, Turin, Como, Terrera, Beluna, Lodi, Verona, Parma, Bergarmo, Naples, Bresia, Venice, Hazara, Palermo, Cremon, Catania and almost any other town mentionable.

The agitation has been spread to the country districts and from all sides come accounts of rioting and indignant protest, of bitter denunciation and loud cries for vengeance upon those who have been responsible for the terrible reverse to the Italian armies.

The report that Gen. Baratieri had committed suicide turns out to be incorrect, but it would seem as if that would have been the best thing he could do under the circumstances, for as the darker and darker reports which are reaching Rome from Massowah are substantiated, he will have great difficulty in escaping capital sentence on his trial by court-martial. It is said, among other things, that he deserted the troops while the latter were fighting gallantly against overwhelming numbers of Shoans, and that he fied to a spot 100 kilometers from the scene of the massacre, for that seems to be the proper term for the rout of Italy's troops, without knowing or apparently caring what became of Gens. Dabormida and Arimondi, whose columns have never since been heard from, so far as can be ascertained here. and Arimondi, whose columns have never since been heard from, so far as can be ascertained here. The column of troops commanded by Gen. Albertone also appears to have been crushed, and that officer is still missing.

The motion to impeach the Cabinet, which the members of the Left gave notice of their intention to propose, was as follows: "The Chamber of Deputies, hoping that the people, with calmness and energy, will know how to do justice to all the guilty parties in the Africa and energy, will know how to do justice to all the guilty parties in the Africa enterprise, decides to recall the troops now in Africa, and upon the impeachment of the ministry."

The Opinione mentions, among those who will possibly be intrusted with the formation of a new cabinet, the names of the Marquis di Rudini, Sig. Saracco and Gen. Ricotti. The Journal believes, however, that the King will select the Marquis di Rudini, who will form a ministry in connection with Sig. select the Marquis di Rudini, who will form a ministry in connection with Sig. Brien, an ex-member. The Tribuna things Gen. Ricotti will be chosen, the Marquis di Rudini coöperating.

There seems to be no cessation and no amelioration of the agitation and disorders among the people, notwithstanding the less disastrous character of later reports of the battle of Adowa. The agitation is as threatening as ever, and during the course of the evening

The announcement was followed by cheers, which were taken up by crowds outside, and echoed far and wide. Some moments elapsed before the cheering subsided, and even then the excited shouts of the Leftists continued for a time, Crispi gazed calmiy upon the shouting Deputies, as if sucn a demonstration was quite an ordinary occurrence, and when again able to make himself heard, added: "The ministers will remain at their posts until their successors are appointed." More cheers and shouts of disapproval followed, after which the president of the chamber asked the house to adjourn until the crown had decided upon the successors of the ministers.

The Leftists raised a storm of protest against the proposition, saying that the government should be impeached; that the public was entitled to know who was responsible for the disaster in Abyssinia, and that there was no excuse for not making public promptly all the facts in the possession of the ministers. But when the protests had been exhausted, the house adjourned pending the appointment of a new Cabinet.

Later advices from Massowah show that although the rout of the Italians to Asmara, as first reported, and the stragglers who were believed to have perished are arriving there. This has caused the renewal of complaints against the government for not giving an official estimate of the number of killed and wounded, which is still believed to be over five thousand.

that part of the house. But this was only accomplished with a great deal of difficulty. Several arrests were made and there was a number of encounters between the people in the gallery and the police, the former hooting and yelling as they were driven out.

Later several thousand people met on the Plazza Colonade, and, after listening to a number of flery orations, during which the African policy of the government was strongly denounced, the police and troops interfered and the mob was dispersed.

After the adjournment of the Deputies, a majority of the members remained in the lobbles quarreling violently, and in several instances almost coming to blows. After the neighborhood of the Chamber of Deputles had been cleared by the police and the troops, large crowds of people marched through the streets headed by the Leftist Deputies, shouting "Down with the government." "Down with Crisp." and other violent cries. The police made no attempt to disperse them, and much disorder followed.

Senator Hawley expressed sympathy with the public feeling against Spain, yet he feared the earnestness and eagerness of the United States would involve us in war, not only with Spain, but other European nations. He deprecated the flippancy with which warlike utterances were made.

Senator Sherman concluded to let the subject go over until Monday, the Senate having agreed to adjourn until then, and he gave notice that he would call up the report during the morning hour, lasting from 12 until 2 o'clock.

The objection by Senator Hale prevented consideration of the conference report at the present time.

Upon request of Senator Sherman it was made the special order of business for Monday.

In the discussion, Senator Chandler declared the resolutions were not strong enough. He was in favor of the recognition and maintenance of Cuban independence by the United States.

HOUSE.—The House today wrangled about four hours over the salaries of United States marshals and the other features of the amendment to the Legislative Appropriation Bill to abolish the fee system in the cases of United States attorneys and marshals, Interest in the debate, however, was completely in the case of United States.

overshadowed by a sensational attack upon President Cleveland by Mr. Hartman of Montana, who feit himself personally aggrieved by Mr. Cleveland's utterances at the Presbyterian Home Mission meeting in New York on Tuesday and who seized the opportunity allowed by the latitude of debate on appropriation bills to repel the idea that the Western States were the home of evil influences.

Mr. Hartman sent to the clerk's desk and had read the following extract from Mr. Cleveland's address: "The toleration of evils and indifference to Christianizing and elevating influences in the States in the West, which, "if unchecked develops into badly-regulated municipalities, corrupt and unsafe Territories and undesirable States."

unchecked develops into badiy-regulated municipalities, corrupt and unsafe Territories and undesirable States."

"Whatever may be my individual opinion of the President," said Mr. Hartman, "matters not. It would not be proper for me to state it here. For the high office of the President of the United States I have supreme regard. The legitimate functions of that office are limited to those enumerated in our Constitution. Under the Constitution and laws I deny the right of the Chief Executive to wilfully and wantonly, in public address or otherwise, insult any of the citizens or any State of the republic over whom he has been called to preside. I deny the constitutional authority of the President to give utterance in public addresses to sentiments favorable or adverse to proposed legislation pending in our houses of Congress.

"When the President made the foregoing remarks he knew there was pending in Congress bills for the admission of certain Territories into the union of States. He had been advised that a majority of the citizens of those Territories were antagonistic to his financial and economic views, and under the cloak of a supposed religious address, before a religious organization, and with gross impropriety, and for the purpose of preventing the achievement of the rights of statehood to which they aspire and are entitled, he gave utterance, as Chief Executive, to this unfounded slander against those citizens and States of the republic whose interests he is sworn to protect and uphold."

Mr. Powers of Vermont, also a Republican, jumped to his feet and called Mr. Hartman to order. "If there is nobody on this floor," said he, addressing the Democratic side, "who is related to the President by ties of affinity or consanguinity, social or political—"

"State your point," demanded Mr. Hartman, interrupting him.

Mr. Hepburn of Iowa, who was in the chair, said that he did not feel called upon to say whether the remarks came within the rule, whereupon Mr. Miles of Maryland came to the support of the President, but he was promptly overruled, whereupon he appealed from the decision of the chair, adding that Mr. Hartman had taken a liberty which had never been countenanced in the had never been countenanced in the American Congress before. Our educational facilities are equal to those of any settions of the Union, and if some of the particular of the people of the West had been possessed by the President and his friends, the citizens of this republic would not have been called on to witness the national humiliation of hauling down the American flag at Honolulu, of begging the bankers of Wall street and Great Britain to save us from financial ruin, and, under the behests of the powers behind the throne, of denying to the oppressed citizens of Cuba the recognition which the dictates of humanity and common right demand. "I am sorry for a gentleman who has neither," retorted Mr. Sulzer.

"It is always unfortunate," returned Mr. Grosvenor, "when a gentleman is possessed of such a knowledge of his own fallures that he constantly advertises them to the public. (Laughter.) Now, Mr. Chairman, I have been diverted from the serious argument that I was about to present (laughter.) and I yield the balance of my time to the gentleman from Montana."

"It is also true," continued Mr. Hartman, resuming, "that the patriotism of these corrupt and unsafe Territories and undesirable States' has never yet been able to rise to that lofty plane of supreme wisdom and virtue which enables those who claim to occupy it to justify the sale of thirty-year government bonds of a year ago for 104, when that very day ten-year bonds were selling at 106. On behalf of the citizens of the States and Territories thus slandered and malligned by the Chief Executive, I here and now repel the insult, and respectfully suggest that the greatest need of this country for the work of the missionary, the schoolmaster and the statesman, will be found at the White House." The bill was passed on motion of Mr. Grosvenor of Ohio, to make national military parks national fields for the maneuvers of the regular army and the militia of the States, under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of war.
The House then resumed the consideration of the amendment to the Legislative Appropriation Bill to abolish the fee system in the case of United States attorneys and marshals. The salaries of marshals fixed today were identical with those of the district attorneys, fixed yesterday, except in the following districts: Indiana, 4500; Eastern District of Louisiana, 2500; Maine, 33000; Nevada, 32000; New Jersey, $2500; Northern District of New York, $5000 and Southen District of New York, $5000 and Southen District attorneys and marshals were allowed fees not to exceed $6000, and mileage, Opening—Downing Injured.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.)

SAN: FRANCISCO, March 5.—The cycle show and indoor bicycle tournament at the Mechanics' Pavilion opened tonight with fully 6000 people in attendance—the largest number of spectators that has ever gathered at a California race meet.

The cycle show is an excellent one, nearly all the principal makes of wheels being represented and tastefully arranged in beautifully decorated stands. Almost every style of machine, from the sixteen-pound racer to a six-seater, is exhibited, and from the interest taken in the exhibits, the outlook for a great year in the cycle business in California is expected.

The track, which is an eight-lap affair, is probably the safest indoor track ever constructed, and is banked to admit of a speed of a mile in two minutes or less. Only one accident occurred of any consequence. It was in the last fifty yards of the interclub cup race, and Griffiths, the Bay City Wheelmen's representative; Tantau of the Olympic Club, Downing of the Garden Club were sprinting like mad in the positions indicated when Downing tried to pass on the inside. He fell heavily and struck a bench, breaking his nose and it is believed fracturing his skull. He is conscious and the physicians have hope for the best. Downing is without doubt one of the first ten riders of California, and his track tactics are of the cleanest and most gentlemanly.

ing is without doubt one of the first ten riders of California, and his strack tactics are of the cleanest and most gentlemanly.

The racing was of the finest order, Charley Wells and J. E. Edwards winning the mile events and Griffiths and Tantau being tied for first place in the ten-mile cup race. Wells clearly showed his superior ability, both as a rider and a general, he seeming to have his opponents at his mercy at every stage of the game.

The final of the mile invitation brought out Wells, Downing, Yeoman and Squires. With four such men on the track a great race was looked for, and the spectators were not disappointed. The positions of the men changed frequently during the eight laps, but on the fifth lap Wells began to move up and took the pole from Downing. He set a killing pace, and although both Downing and Yeoman tried to pass him, he finished a wheel's length ahead of Downing, who beat Squires for the second place by about the same distance.

The one mile open was not so interesting, owing to the fact that neither Byrne nor Tantau would set their share of the pace, leaving the work to Edwards, who set all the pace and beat Byrne out for first place. Edwards was loudly chered for his efforts.

The ten-mile interclub race was fought out by Griffiths, Tantau, Downing and Boydon, Griffiths and Tantau tied for first place; time 2:30 1-5.

Final, one mile, open: J. E. Edwards first, F. M. Byrne second, Tantau third; time 2:30 4-5.

Corbett and Fitssimmons. NEW YORK, March 5.—Articles of agreement for the proposed fight between Corbett and Fitzsimmons before the National Sporting Club of London have been received by Richard K. Fox, who is authorized to sign men, receive deposits and arrange details.

Ingleside Reopened. SAN FRANCISCO, March 5.—The Ingleside track was reopened today in a most auspicious manner, seven well-filled races being carded. Favorites had a hard day of it, but two showing in front. The other races went to third choice and outsiders.

The King Takes Sides with the Russians.

His Pro-Japanese Ministers Are Beheaded.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 5.—The steamer China arrived today from Yokohama, bringing news of another coup d'etat on an extensive scale at eoul, Korea. On February 10, a de-chment of Russian marines, number-ig 127, arrived in Seoul from Jinsen the Korean King and the Crown Prince went into the Russian legation and formed a new government, dismissing all the former Cabinet ministers. Pre-mier Kim Hong-Tsuh and seven others, known as pro-Japanese statesmen were beheaded and their corpse dragged around the streets. A decree, said to have been signed by the King at the Russian legation, ordered that the heads of five of the murdered minthe heads of five of the murdered ministers be fixed on spikes and exposed.

All the telegraph wires from Seoul were then cut, and only meager news of the coup was obtainable. On receipt of the news of these occurrences, American, British and Trench men-of-war in Jinsen landed detachments of marines, who immediately left for Seoul. The King is said to have been induced to his action through a desire to avenge the murder of the Queen last October. All the members of the new ministry are said to be connected with the Min family, of which the murdered Queen was a member. The Tokio papers attribute the King's actions to the influence of the Russian Minister. The Russian embassy, where the King resides, is guarded by 30 Russian marines.

COL. MARCEAU'S RAID.

escends on His Wife's Apartmen With Sensational Results.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.) SAN FRANCISCO, March 5.-Col Theodore Marceau has commenced a sensational suit. He has taken legal steps to secure permanent separation from his wife by instituting proceed from his wife by instituting proceeding in the Superior Court today. His ground for divorce is adultery, in support of which charge he relates in his complaint an exciting occurrence at the Palace Hotel this morning.

It was a sensational affair, ending in the alleged expose of the wife's inidelity and bringing into unenviable notoriety John J. Mahoney, a Canadian gambler, who has resided at the Palace Hotel. This much accomplished, Col. Marceau then made off with his youngest child, Theodore Jr., and, having found a place of safety for the latter, he hied himself to Judge Paterson's office and was soon made the complainant in the above-mentioned proceedings.

office and was soon made the complainant in the above-mentioned proceedings.

According to the story told by Col. Marceau and his attorneys, several days ago he received information to the effect that J. J. Mahoney nad become a frequent visitor to his wife's rooms and at unusual hours, too. Yesterday the husband fully satisfied himself of the truth of this information and, under advice of his friends, he concluded to act at once.

Shortly after 3 o'clock this morning there was wild commotion on the second floor of the hotel in the vicinity of Mrs. Marceau's room.

Guests were aroused from their slumbers by the banging of several doors, loud talking and the rush of many feet. Of course an inquiry followed and in less than an hour a story had spread through the hotel that Col. Marceau had made a descent with several trusted friends on his wife's apartments and carried off his youngest child, a chubby boy who bears his father's name. Later on another and more scandalous chapter was added to the story. It was charged that the husband, on making his unexpected raid, had discovered in his wife's bedroom Horseman Mahoney.

In support of this charge there followed the drafting and filing of the complaint for divorce and the admission of its truth by Col. Marceau's attorney, Judge Paterson.

Relates the Story of His Life and

SAN FRANCISCO, March 5.—Rev. C.

O. Brown was on the witness stand in his own defense this afternoon before the Congregational council. He prefaced his testimony by scoring the newspapers on the ground that an effort had been made to prejudice the community against him. He charged that the reporters at the council had suppressed all testimony favorable to him, and had misquoted his utterances to the council. At the request of the moderator a motion was adopted by the council requesting the papers to treat Dr. Brown impartially.

Dr. Brown then began his testimony. He stated that he was born in Michigan forty-seven years ago, and learned the trade of a blacksmith. He wished to enlist during the civil war, but as he was too young to be enrolled, he accompanied his father to Shiloh and other fields as his father's servant, Subsequently he served as a bugler in the Third Ohlo. He began to study theology at Oberlin when 17, and a year later married his present wife. For violating the rule that students should not marry, he was obliged to leave Oberlin, and so went to Olivet College in Michigan, where he remained seven years, supporting himself by teaching and preaching.

He told of trouble in his first pastoral charge at Rochester, Mich., when anonymous letters were scattered about the town assailing his character. He recounted the church council there and read the verdict completely exonerating him of the charge of immorality. He recited the more important incidents in his career until the time of his removal to Tacoma.

He said he first met Miss Overman after he had been in Tacoma six months. His wife had engaged her as a seamstress on the recommendation of prominent ladies. He said his acquaintance with her in Tacoma was casual. Miss Overman sewed for his wife at the parsonage three times. He knew she was trying to acquire an education and that she worked by day and studied at night. He was called to the First Congregational Church in San Francisco in 1882, and stated that he was introduced to Mrs. Stockton by Mrs. Sarah B. Cooper. Directly ques until the night of December 19, when she was informed by Dr. Brown that Mrs. Davidson had blackmalled him. Miss Overman, according to the witness, denounced Mrs. Davidson as a hypocrite and moved her trunk from Mrs. Davidson's house, where she was living, the same night.

Deacon Vasconcellas was called to prove that during the last thirty years, during which time he has attended every service at the First Congregational Church, he had never seen any improper conduct between Dr. Brown and Mrs. Stockton. The deacon's story began on a Sunday two years ago, when he was called upon at short notice to assist Dr. Brown in baptizing Mrs. Stockton and exjended to the time when the scandal was precipitated. On all occasions Dr. Brown had been a model of propriety and Mrs. Stockton had been as circumspect. Questioned more closely, the deacon said he had never seen anything bordering on familiarity between Mr. Brown and any woman. He could not even remember that he had ever seen the doctor walk on the street with any woman other than his wife.

Deacon Williams thought too much time was being wasted on this line of investigation and moved the adoption of a resolution to close the examination. He said he believed both sides would admit that Dr. Brown was not in the habit of making appointments with women for immoral purposes and therefore he introduced a resolution conceding this point. The resolution was adopted without discussion, and the council adjourned until 9 o'clock tomorrow, on account of Deacon Frank's funeral, but an evening session will be held tomorrow, and it was announced that the session will be open to the public, as the doctor desires that the public shall hear his explanation of the challes small against nim.

Lump sums are to be charged for the privilege, and a duty of $2 a pound is to be levied. In certain circles much opposition has been aroused, and the bill will probably not become a law.

pata, has been hurrying thousands of troops into Santa Clara by land and sea, with one purpose of hemming the enemy in at that point.

Gen. Pando, in command in Santa Clara, only awaited the arrival of these troops to strike hard blows, but Gomez and Maceo, having left in the everglades hospitals all their wounded and ill, taken east from their raids in the western provinces, strengthened their forces with new troops fresh from Puerto Principe and San Diego and then, while the panish battalions were en route to catch them, they unexpectedly turned west again, slipping past all obstructions with only a few skirmishes.

Now Gomez is in the heart of Mac.

past all obstructions with only a few skirmishes. Now Gomez is in the heart of Ma-tanzas, nad Macco is once more al-most in the gates of the capital. Trains have been fired on just beyond the city on the Matanzas road and Monday night there was a sharp skirmish only three miles beyond the suburb of Jesus del Monte, a little settlement to which Havana horse-cars and omnibuses, make regular trips. There was no of-ficial report of the affair given out. SMALLPOX AMONG THE HORRORS.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Smallpex has been added to the horrors existing in Cuba, according to a communication has been added to the horrors existing in Cuba, according to a communication received by Surgeon-General Wyman of the Marine Hospital Service from Dr. Caminero at Santiago. In his report Dr. Caminero says:

"A general order has been issued by the authorities to all the practicing physicians of the town to report any case of smallpox presenting itself, for the purpose of sending any such case to a smallpox hospital, provided by the municipality outside of the city limits, but this measure will not prevent in any judgment the development of the terrible disease if it should further appear among us. No quarantine is enforced upon the coasting steamers coming from the port of Manzanillo, where smallpox is epidemic, and most likely some passengers will arrive with the disease within its period of incubation, which, later on, will develop into a more or less malignant form of smallpox. Yellow fever seems stationary and, as the troops are now in active operation in the field, those taken with it are carried to the provisional hospitals established in the surrounding country."

THE BRITISH EMPIRE'S DEATH-

NEW YORK, March 5.—Admiral Richard W. Meade, in a lecture on "The Caribbean Sea," said that in case of trouble between the United States and Great Britain over Venezuela, the first cussing the Cuban question, he said that Cuba should bear the same rela-tion to Spain that Canada bears to the British Empire.

SENATOR ALLEN'S RESOLUTION WASHINGTON, March 5.-Senato WASHINGTON, March 5.-Senator Allen today reintroduced his resolution requesting the President to recognize the independence of Cuba, which was voted down last Friday. It is a joint resolution and if it should be adopted by both houses would go to the President for his signature or disapproval.

GROVER WILL REFUSE.

MADRID, March 5. — According statement of El Dia, Señor Dupuy Lome, the Spanish Minister to Washington, has telegraphed to the government that President Cleveland will refuse, so long as he is President, either to recognize the rebels or intervene in the Cuban question.

THE REPORT DENIED. WASHINGTON, March 5.—From a source, the accuracy of which cannot be questioned, the report that Minister Dupuy de Lome has telegraphed his government that President Cleveland will refuse, as long as he is President, either to recognize the relegant intereither to recognize the rebels or intereither to recognize the rebels or intervene in the Cuban question, can be safely denied. Statements of a similar nature have heretofore been published. The foundation for the statement probably arose from an interview with Mininister de Lome, quite extensively published in this country, and portions of which have no doubt found their way to Madrid.

PRINCETION BOYS AT WORK

PRINCETON BOYS AT WORK PRINCETON, (N. J.,) March 5.—The undergraduates of Princeton tonight burned in effigy the King of Spain in a demonstration in which several hun-dred took part. The flag of Spain was dragged through the main street and later was torn to pieces in the center of the campus.

UP TO HIS OLD COMMISSION NEW YORK, March 6.-A special to the World from Washington says it is possible that President Cleveland will send a military commission to Cuba to report on the condition of afcube to report on the connection of ar-fairs there. In this connection it is announced that Gen. Wesley Merritt, commander of the Department of the Missouri, and several other high offi-cials of the army, have been suddenly summoned to Washington.

The World says it could not be posi-tively learned last night that their mis-sion had any reference to Cuba, but tively learned last night that their mission had any reference to Cuba, but it is known that the President has implicit confidence in Gen. Merritt, and that he would be quite likely to name him for a position of the character indicated.

IS HIS EYE ON CUBA? WASHINGTON, March 5,-Mr. Fenton of Ohio introduced today a joint resolution for an amendment to the Constitution providing that no addi-tion shall ever be made to the number of States of the Union from any terriby the control from any territory which may hereafter be acquired by the government, if such territory lies south of the parallel of 30 deg. north latitude. In the event of acquisition by the United States of any of the territory so situated, Congress is to forever exercise exclusive legislation in all cases whatsoever over it.

(Indianapolis Journal:) "When you say I do not love you as much as I did," explained the young husband, "you do me an injustice. You must remember, my dear, that the amount of love I used to condense into a once-a-week visit now has to do for the whole seven days."

(Cincinnatt Enquirer.) "Just been renewing an old acquaintance," said the barber, taking a pretzel from the bowl. "Who with!" asked the bartender. "You don't mean who with. You mean what with." "Well, what with, then?" asked the mystified chemist. "Hair dye. Made him look ten years newer."

(New York Weekly:) Woman (to tramp.) Want something to eat, eh? My fire is out, and I have no kindling to light it. Can't cook, or even warm things, without a fire, you know. Tramp. No, mum. Woman. There is wood and a hatchet out in the shed. Tramp. Yes, mum; I see it. Have you any ple? Woman. I have mince and pumpkin. Tramp. Pumpkin will do, mum. That's good cold.

(Detroit Tribune:) "My life," cried the impassioned lover, "I lay my heart—I mean my stomach—at your feet." He had reflected suddenly that she was the graduate of a cooking school, and he was fain to make his plea as moving and attractive as possible.

(Washington Star:) "Er man dat am allus lookin' foh trouble," said Uncle Eben, "ain't likely ter git dis'p'inted, no matter how near-sighted he is."

(London Tit-Bits:) "I hope, Jennie, that you have given the matter serious consideration," said a lâdy to a servant girl who had "given notice" because she was to be married "that day two weeks." "Oh, I have, ma'am," was the earnest reply. "I've been to two fortune-tellers and a clairvoyant, and looked in a sign book, and dreamed on a lock of his hair, and been to one of them asterrologers and to a meejum, and they all tell me to go ahead, ma'am. I ain't one to marry reckless like, ma'am."

(Puck:) In Kansas. "That was a pow erful interesting debate at the literary society last night." "What was it about?" "Whether the microbe was more injurious than the cyclone."

(Philadelphia Record:) "Come here, I want to see you," said the seal-hunter. "What fur?" asked the seal. "On a matter of business," replied the man. "I don't want any business relations with you," remarked the seal, with a filpper at his nose. "I'am afraid you'd skin me."

(Scottish American:) Lawyer. You say the prisoner stole your watch.
What distinguishing feature was there about the watch? Witness. It had my sweetheart's picture in it. Lawyer. Ah!
I see. A woman in the case,

(Punch:) A Feminine Failing. First Sportsman. Well, how do you like that new mare of yours? Second Sports-man. Oh, fairly well. But I wish I had bought a horse. She's always stopping to look at herself in the puddles!

SHOES COFFEE.

There's all sorts of grades of coffee. The best comes from the Island of Java. There's all sorts of grades of Ladies' Shoes. The best is the Laird, Schober Co.'s. If you want cheap coffee, all rightprovided you get value for your money. Cheap coffee is not as good to drink, but it don't cost as much.

If you want cheap shoes — but you don't want them. Of course you don't. You pay money enough to get the best. To pay for the best and get anything but Laird, Schober Co.'s is paying for Java and getting Rio. If you want the Java of Shoes will be appointed to interview those who have failed to respond to the request of a subscription, as much of the success of the celebration depends upon the financial support, and the amount of money secured. In order to carry out the plans of the management in all their details, it is absolutely necessary that $25,000 be secured.

On Tuesday evening next the Athletic Club will tender a "smoker" to the fiesta workers at its rooms in the Stowell Block. On that occasion the young men will be specially appealed to for their assistance and enthusiasm to make the carnival a success. Between refreshments and cigars a discussion will be had looking toward the organization of a number of fiesta clubs, the members of which will be expected to take an active part in the events of the week. These clubs will be composed of the best element of young men, and will be formed after the manner of the Mystic Krewe and Knights of Comus of St. Louis and New Orleans. They form distinct parts of the celebration, and the identity of the participants is only known to the members of the respective organizations. The Park Commissioners have consented to arrange for the erection of the liberty pole at Sixth-street Park, and for its conveyance from the railroad depot to the place of its destination. The pole has been specially ordered from the State of Washington, and has been donated by the W. H. Perry Lumber Company, that pays the expenses of transportation to San Pedro. It will be from 100 to 120 feet in length, and will be brought to this city on a special train. A programme has been arranged for ceremonies prior and during the erection of the pole, around which the school children will gather on the afternoon of Friday. April 24, when the Stars and Stripes will be holsted and saluted by 14.000 young Americans. Prof. Forshay, who is chairman of the Committee on Fiaz-raising, believes that only a small percentage of the schoolchildren will fail to participate in the patriotic event.

G. B. Bryant, the burglar who robbed Maj. Ben C. Truman's residence, was arraigned yesterday on another charge, that of robbing the house of J. R. Haskell. He will be examined at 3 o'clock today. Tom Atwood, whom Officer Lennon accused of carrying concealed weapons, was told to appear today to make his plea. O. M. Clements demanded a jury trial of the vagrancy case against him. The trial was set for March 7. George Hull got twenty days for vagrancy and six drunks were sentenced to pay fines ranging from $5 to $2.

IN SOCIAL SPHERES.

One of the most delightful card parties of the winter was given hast evening by the Misses Johnson, at their home on South Hope street, in honor of Miss Wood of Hopkinsville, Ky., and Miss Belknap of Carson City, Nev. Miss Davis of St. Joseph, Mo., assisted very charmingly in receiving. There were twelve tables. The prizes were very pretty, the first for the ladies being a pair of silver curling tongs, and for the gentlemen, a handsome whist set. The ladies' second prize was a silver pen-holder, and that for the gentlemen, a leather picture case. A delicious supper was served. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Braly, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Carey, Mr. and Mrs. Flank, Jack Jevne, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cattern, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Johnson, the Misses May Newton, Pattee, Hattic Chapman, Spruance, Bumiller, the Misses Kimball, the Misses Wellborn, the Misses Goodrich, the Misses Fairchild: Messrs. A PUPILS' RECITAL. The recital given yesterday after The recital given yesterday afternoon by the pupils of Mrs. Jenny Kempton, at her residence on South Pearl street, was a very delightful affair. The programme was most enjoyably rendered, the pupils reflecting much credit upon their instructor. The encores were frequent, and were graciously responded to. The programme was as follows A duet by Paciri, by Mmes. Kempton and J. Roth Hamilton; arlette, "Saper Voresti" (Verdi.) by Miss Myra. Todi; "Over the Waves" (Holman, by Miss Mollie Toland; "For All Eternity" (Mascheroni.) by Mme. von Schlutterbach, with violin obligato by Max Mertens; "Flower of the Alps," by Miss Emma Graves; ballade, "The Dying Rose" (Funison.) by Miss Louise Clark; "Summer" (Chaminade, by Mrs. Hamilton; "Angus McDonald" (Rocekle.) by Mrs. J. S. Owens; "Forget Me not" (Suppe,) by Miss Delphine Todd; duet, "Lerbe Ogune" (Rossini.) by Mmes. Hamilton and Owens. The accompaniments were played by Mrs! W. D. Larrabee. Among the audience, which quite filled the pretty drawing-room and reception hall, were Mmes. Willoughby, Rodman, W. L. Graves, Campbell, C. H. Hance, the Misses Mullins, Col. The vote at Wednesday's meeting of

ENGLAND AND PROTECTION. The slow-moving British public is not quick at arriving at conclusions, for it is given a good deal to relying upon established precedents, and ac cepting as the highest wisdom the ranale of its ancestors in the matter of things that are, as the evidence of their right to be. But however sluggish the mental forces that impel John Bull to the consideration of methods of change in the conduct of public affairs, there is no question whatever but that British sentiment in relation to free trade is slowly experiencing a radical change, and that a feeling in favor of protec tion is surely materializing.

There are many causes at work to bring about this political evolution ot the least of which is the fact that England no longer enjoys the monop of the manufactures of the civil ized world, nor the unrivaled control of the world's maritime commerce The British working classes are at length awake to the fact that mechan ical inventions and improved machinery have had a wonderful effect in stimulating the industrial forces of other lands, and they are beginning to realize that British commercial supremacy is a thing of the past.

In a recent review of the industrial conditions existing both in this country and in England, we saw it stated that "in 1893 the aggregate manufactured products of Great Britain were valued at $4,200,000,000, while those of the United States during the same period were valued at $8,100,000,000." And that was a year of unusual business depression in this country, especially in the lines of manufacture, owing to Democratic tariff agitation and the uncertainties resulting therefrom.

These facts, which have brought the British public face to face with figures which do not lie, are like a mighty battering-ram brought to bear upon the old ramparts of British conserva tism and prejudice, and they emphasize that undercurrent of English sen timent, whose trend has been gradually away from free trade and in the direction of protection. The spirit of McKinlevism is abroad in the British isles, and its demands have been growlouder and more earnest, until they can be no longer passed by in

On the 20th of February the Minister of Agriculture introduced a bill which fell like a thunderbolt into the ranks of free-traders. The bill is alluded to in foreign dispatches as "a measure for amending the diseases of animals act of 1894," and a cable dispatch defines the bill as follows:

"What the bill really proposes to do is absolutely and permanently to prohibit the importation of live animals from any part of the world, the British colonies included. It will be interesting to see how Canada, in particular, will like this scheme. Ever since the Dominion was scheduled as a diseased country and its profitable trade in store cattle was ruined, the Scottish farmers have been agitating, in confunction with the Canadian authorities, to have the embargo removed; and everybody has supposed that early success would crown their efforts. Now the Scotchmen are told that they will have to buy what store cattle they want from English breeders, which "What the bill really proposes to do absolutely and permanently to proave to buy what store cattle they ant from English breeders, which seans at monopolists' prices, and the reatest of the colonies is treated with ses consideration than the smallest, tost insignificant foreign state with which Britain has ever had a boundary

No party in this country, Democrat or Republican, will have the courage to wipe it from the statute-books or to amend it, save in the direction of its improvement."

According to the St. Louis Globeemocrat, "a prominent railroad mar who has just returned from London credit and securities has been restored but that the English financiers say the only safe policy for us is to make the revenues equal to the expenditures;" which is equivalent to saying that the Republican party should be restored

True the Children Are Sometimes Spanked-How a Red-pep-per Story Grew-The Accuser's Children Are Still There.

Charges have been made against the management of the Protestant Or-phans' Home, on Alpine and Vale streets. William F. Dunn, who has two child: en in the institution, declares the children are cruelly and unnecessarily whipped, that they are forced to drink ground red pepper in water as a pnush-ment, and that the rules are arbitrary unjust.

A Times reporter paid a visit to th home yesterday afternoon, with a view to ascertaining the truth of the matter. "Yes," said Mrs. Elmira T. Stephens the president of the board of managers do whip the children sometimes When there are 150 children all living together, it is necessary to use a strap now and then. Those children are just like other children—their wings haven't sprouted yet! But we think whipping should always be the last resort. It would, indeed, have been unfortunate if the vote of the directors, virtually in favor of the refunding scheme, had been permitted to go out to the country as an expression of the views of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce on this vitally important question. Such action would have been interpreted as an expression of Southern California opinion in favor of refunding. It is needless to say that this would have been a gross misrepresentation, and so a gross injustice to the whole of Southern California.

water as a remedy for stomach-ache and as a gargle in cases of sore throat. A former matron sometimes used it to try to cure poor little wretches who were addicted to deprayed habits. As for the hapless William F. Dunn, the maker of the charges, the women of the home speak things which are enough to wither and shrivel him up. They say he has had two children in the home for about five months. During that time, unlike the most of the parents, he has paid not one penny toward their support. Until recently he has had only words of praise to say. It is the rule of the home that four specified days of each month shall be parents 'days, when the relatives of the children may visit with them. If a man cannot possibly visit his children on those days, he can always get a permit for another day. Half the help are gone each Sunday. For some time relatives of the children have been treaching in the Sunday-school as a mere pretext to get to see their children. Since this creates much confusion, a rule was recently adepted that neither parents nor members of the board of managers shall be allowed to teach in this Sunday-school. Mrs. Stephens says it is wholly dure to Mr. Dunn's anger at this rule which has brought such an unwarranted attack upon the home.

The institution is open to investigation at any hour of the day or night the year round. The Protestant Orphans' Home has always been thus open for investigation since it was founded seventeen years ago. But in all those years never before have charges of mismanagement been advanced.

One thing worthy of note, says Mrs. Stephens, is that, while Dunn is visiting lawyers, preachers and newspaper offices, denouncing the home, he nevertheless allows his children to remain there.

About a week ago Dunn came to the Times office for the purpose, he explained, of seeking information. He said he knew of a public institution where little children were cruelly beaten, starved and subjected to innumerable indignities, which he thought should be made public. He asked for advice as to the proper manner of making the disclosures so as to bring about a reform. He refused to tell what institution he had the complaint against, and at first even deckined to give his own name. He was told that, if such abuses existed, a member of the Times staff would look up the matter and confirm the details of his story before publishing them. The idea of confirming his story before printing it evidently did not suit Dunn, for he peddled it to the Herald, which paper does not care whether a story is true or not, if it is sensational enough. Dunn's charges are weakened by the fact that, though he is an able-bodied man, he not only places his two children in a charitable institution, but does not pay anything for their keeping. tions the money necessary to continue the appropriations of the Civil Service Commission. Bark Enoch Talbot Could not Weather the Storm.

Her Officers and Crew Wallowed in Crude Oil.

rhe Oil Vessel is Again at San Pedro-No Loss of Life and but Little of the Cargo-Terrible Experiences.

A serious state of affairs is reported from the bark Enoch Talbot which put to sea from the port of San Pedro Mon-day with a cargo of about fifty-five hundred barrels of Los Angeles crude oil for the San Francisco market. The wind at that time was fair, and Capt. Johnson said he expected to be half way to San Francisco next morning. Surprise was manifested when it was found that sie had been sighted off Port

Los Angeles Tuesday.

The bark, with her cargo of oil, is rid-ing at anchor outside San Pedro Harbor. Capt. Johnson and part of the crew capt. Johnson and part of the crew came ashore last night and reported a four days' voyage such as try men's souls. Members of the crew literally had wallowed in oil, which had leaked from the tanks in the hold. The vessel left Monday morning with a fair wind, which died down when an hour and a half out. Rough weather and head winds followed, and the bark had to drift and beat about. Tuesday afternoon she started to put into Port Los Angeles to anchor.

noon she started to put into Fort Los Angeles to anchor.

A tug came out from the long wharf, and Capt. Johnson was emphatically told to put to sea again and not come there if they did not want to drown. The vessel then took a southwesterly course, and at night, near the north end of Catalina, encountered a heavy hail, which piled thickly on the deck. Capt. Johnson's eye was struck by a hailstone, nearly destroying the sight. Water leaked into the hold, and when it was attempted to pump it out the pump became clogged with shavings and chips, the refuse from building the compartments. Oil and water reached three feet above the pump, but Capt. Johnson dived down, unscrewed the cylinder bolts and cleaned it out. The main pump was also started, but drew up oil instead of water, and it ran over the deck.

Head winds continued so strong that the bark, instead of making progress toward San Francisco, drifted southerly, and yesterday came to the point of anchorage, outside the harbor. Capt.
Johnson says he does not expect to tow
the vessel inside the harbor, but to Johnson says he does not expect to tow the vessel inside the harbor, but to make repairs at the anchorage, and then sail north. He thinks he can sail in about three days. In the vessel's hold is five feet of water, which leaked in, but the quantity is rather small, for the hold is mostly filled with oil tanks.

The amount of oil lost by leakage is said to be small. A Times reporter attempted to row out to the bark in the afternoon to personally investigate, but the bark had sailed further out for anchorage, and it was too far to row to

All day yesterday a stream of peo-ple passed in and out of the morgue a Orr & Hines's to gaze on the corpse of Minnie Judy, the woman who drowned herself Tuesday night at Westlake herself Tuesday night at Westlake Park. One woman, who met Miss Judy as she came down from Oregon, said the girl told her then she was going to Los Angeles to work for one year, at the end of which time she would marry an iOregon man. Fred Park, a Santa Fé fireman, received a letter yestorday morning, which was written to him by Miss Judy on Tuesday. This letter will be read at the coroner's inquest, which will probably be held today. It is said Mr. Park has been courting Miss Judy. No answers have yet been received to the telegrams sent to Miss Judy's brother and sister in Oregon.

It is a remed that is practically harmless if properlused. I am acquainted with a physician having a very large practice, wh has followed this rule: He injects the antitoxin at once in every case of dipitheria, or suspected diphtheria, con ing under his care; and he uses it wit all who have been exposed to genuin diphtheria. All have recovery promptly, and none of the cases which the antitoxin has been used a preventive have contracted dipitheria.

If a similar practice could be followed by all physicians, I cannot bubelieve that the mortality from diphtheria would be very small, and that very many cases would be prevented MEDICUS.

THE LIE PASSED.

DEPUTY DIST .- ATTY. JAMES AND POLICEMAN HENDERSON.

Former Explains About Vagrancy Case and Pays His Respects to the Arresting Officer for Making Some Instituations.

The vagrancy case of the People vs. Louisa Smeets, which was set for trial yesterday morning in the Police Court, was continued by the court on motion of Deputy Dist.-Atty. James, to be set, the woman having promised to leave the city and give the authorities no more trouble. The arrangement of the continuance was provisional upon the woman's remaining away from town, and if she returns the case will be at once called up and tried on the pendng charge.

R. E. Henderson was the arresting R. E. Henderson was the arresting officer, and he appeared to be much disappointed at not being able to go on with the case, and outside told his story to the reporter of an evening paper, indirectly charging that Deputy Dist.-Atty. James and officers of the court had been influenced by outside motives in consenting to the continumotives in consenting to the continu-ance upon the grounds mentioned, notwithstanding the fact that nearly notwithstanding the fact that nearly every day the city is relieved of the presence of an undesirable resident in the manner sanctioned by the Deputy District Attorney, and the method is approved by all of the authorities as being far better than to incur the expense of a trial and imprisonment of the defendant for a few days or weeks, at the end of which time they are again turned loose upon the community.

A reporter of an evening paper heard Henderson's lament and "wrote the matter up" with some comment in conection therewith.

When Deputy Dist.-Atty, James saw the article last evening his indignation was aroused, and he said: "If the article in that paper is based upon and stayes substantially what was told the writer of it by the policeman, Henderson is, in plain words, a liar. The large majority of the police officers of the city are careful and efficient, but unfortunately there are few who seem to be more anxious to sectre a record of convictions than they are to do their duty in the way the law intends they should. In their seal for record-making they may go so far as to triffe with truth, and appear in the roll of persecutors, rather than fair-minded officers whose aim is to serve the public interest, and best welfare of the community. This article is colored from beginning to end with the insinuation that I acted under pressure in making the motion I did in the Smeets case: Such an insinuation is as base and unfair as it is false and unfounded and the ignorance or intended prevarication displayed by the officer in the matter is remarkable.

"In this Smeets case the order was one which is made every day in the week almost. Scarcely a week goes by but some of the women of the Alameda street district are brought in for vagrancy, or disturbing the peace. The aim of the courts and authorities has been always to get rid of the creatures whenever they would consent to leave town, and stay away, and thus spare the city further annoyance by their presence, and the expense of lodging them. The Police Court dockets covering the past ten years are full of records of just such disposition of similar cases. This woman, Louisa Smeets, we tried not long ago for disturbing the peace, and the trial resulted in a disagreed jury. Then Officer Henderson brough her in for vagrancy. Yesterday her attorneys asked me what could be pursue; either for the woman to the is making in the case to be set, and in case she did not get ou

French woman to the list in his little book, in which he is making his 'record' However, we have the public good to consider somewhat in these matters, and the Chief of Police joins with me in the belief that whenever a provisional arrangement by which the community may be rid of objectionable women can be reached, that such a course is the far better one to pursue than to endure the presence of these turbulent creatures, as well as to saddle the expense of their maintenance upon the taxpayers during their terms of imprisonment. If a dozen cases of this sort shall come up tomorrow, or any other day, precisely the same disposition will be made of each of them, if I am called upon to recommend or make any motions in the cases.

"However, if Henderson has been correctly interpreted by the newspaper in which this article appears, he has wilfully perverted the truth, and cast some dangerous insinuations, which cannot be overlooked, and the officers of the court and myself will endeavor to see to it, that he is given an opportunity to substantiate his wild talk if he can."

THE FUNDING JOB.

Senator Morgan's Examination Tough on Uncle Collis.

The Southern Pacific's Literary Bureau in Bad Odor.

gan Has Had Greatness Thrust Upon Him-Did Prof. Langley

Discover X Rays, etc.? SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The most intensely interesting subject for conversation in Washington is the Pacific Railroad, Funding Bill. Mr. Huntington was too ill to appear before the committee today, and it is reported that the ordeal of his last examination by Senator Morgan required a period of complete rest to enable him to recuperate his faculties, and revise his statements and reports. He was subjected to a cross-examination sufficiently searching for a criminal prosecution, and asked so many questions concerning the inside management of the Pacific railroads' affairs that the magnate became angry and lost his temper. Another cause for discomfort upon the part of Mr. Huntington is that the Californians whose names he has attached WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The mos ffornians whose names he has attached to the interviews written by his literary bureau here and published in the Post, decline to allow the use of their names, and are indignantly denying that they ever said or thought anything of the kind. At the opening of Congress it would have been difficult to find a member who believed in any further extension of time as to the indebtedness of the Pacific railroads, the principal difference in opinion being only as to whether the government should buy the roads in at a foreclosure sele. Now, through the eloquence, perseverance and possibly other winning methods of Representative Johnson and C. P. Huntington there is a considerable sentiment in favor of the funding bill. Judge Maguire comes out in a lengthy interview and proceeds to accuse Huntington and his associates with all of the crimes on the calender, likening him to Warren Hastings, except that he says Hastings was occasionally capable of moderation, Huntington never. Without discussing the question of government ownership of railroads, in which connection it might be said that the ownership of the Pacific railroads, could not be much more disastrous than the ownership of the Pacific railroad securities has been, as the government could not well lose anything but the railroad, or the danger of having the men who amass millions from these properties located in the East instead of the West, the moral ethics of past transactions, or the perplexing legal problem as to who really owns the property now, or whether it is better for the government to deplete the purses of the living by making them pay the debt, or defer the obligation as a heritage to those who will not be born for half a century yet, and, viewing the whole subject, despite its seriousness, as a comedy, it is decidedly the most interesting ever witnessed in Washington. The average citizen who is not familiar with the details of the controversy, looks upon it as a case where there is an indebtedness to the government is very much in need of money, the secur

It is hetter to be born lucky than rich. The proverb is an old one, but its truth is frequently exemplified, and never more so than in the case of Representative Linton of Michigan, who had charge of the movement to defeat appropriations for teaching Indian putils in sectorian schools. These approhad charge of the movement to defeat appropriations for teaching Indian pulsis in sectarian schools. These appropriations have amounted to about 4,000,000, of which $3,000,000 has been to Catholic schools. The A.P.A. organization, as such, did not make the fight directly, but it wielded a very considerable influence. Even Catholic members voted against the appropriation, and it would by no means be safe to set all of the Congressmen who voted against it down as A.P.A. men, but at the same time it can well be claimed as a victory by the American Protective Association. This has caused Mr. Linton to receive telegrams and letters of Representative McLachlan received a very considerable share of public praise for his part in the work, but Mr. Linton, as an old member, had charge of the movement. Now it looks as though, on the strength of this, he will be nominated for Governor of Michigan, and if the A.P.A. held a national convention soon, he could get the Presidential nomination. Mr. Linton has never been noted for his ability, and his speech as delivered was the weakest made, it not being so good as the one that appears in the Congressional Record, but by the turn of chance he has become a man of great national fame, and if he can now be induced to clothe himself in dignity and say nothing his future greatness is assured. The defeat of the appropriation was one of the most popular moves that has been made by Congress during the past ten years. Representative McLachian received

There is something distressing about the modesty of Prof. Langley, secretary of the Smithsonian Institution. It kept the world from knowing about the X rays, the discovery of which is credited to Prof. Roenigen, for jwelve years, for it has been that long since Prof. Langley succeeded in causing the invisible rays of the solar spectrum to pass through a sheet of hard rubber, and by the bolometer he passed more rays through rubber and measured their heat on the farther side. He did not perfect the discovery, and lays no claim to it, recognizing Prof. Roentgen as though he himself was not in the field twelve years earlier.

Prof. Langley dissents from the opinion that shadowgraphs can be taken by means of sun rays, saying: "A prime characteristic of the sun's rays is that they are susceptible of refraction—that is to say they may be bent by means of sun rays, saying: "A prime characteristic of the sun's rays is that they are susceptible of refraction—that is to say, they may be bent. The X rays of Prof. Roentgen exhibit no such capacity. They may be ben'by means of a magnet, but not otherwise. This is to my mind a good reason for believing that X rays cannot be found among the rays of the sun Supposing this to be true the sun's rays cannot be employed for making shadow graphs."

can be used. Both scientists agree that the discovery will have a declared effect upon the character of the weather bureau service, and enable predictions to be made much in advance of what is possible now, and with greater accuracy. This is a feature that I have never seen remained in connection with the X rays, and the statements of these practical men are of great value.

Some people have very peculiar ideas of the fitness of things. Examples of the singular freaks of individuals can be found in the postoffice museum to which there have been some important additions recently. Perhaps the most interesting to the clerk who discovered it, is a dynamite bomb containing enough explosive compound to blow a whole train to atoms. This was not the work of carelessness, however, but of murderous design. A rattlemake very much alive and wearing nine rattles, broke open the box that contained him and crawled out of a mail suck. The reptile is now in the museum, as is a certipede, also mailed alive. A human skull sent to a physician, and an alligator are among the most interesting finds in the mails. But there are others fully as dangerous to the postal employés. Sharp-edged butcher knives, an open razor, there are false teeth, rings, a fruit cake, a baseball mask, the hat and anklets of spotted Wolf, a noted Indian chief; a bladder full of snuff, and other queer things. It is almost an every day experience that some articles are received that are unmailable. The worst probably ever found was a lot of strange nees resembling horners sent to a scientist to obtain his classification of them. of wild bees, and sending them alive in order that they could be returned to him. The bees reached Washington all right, but the box containing them broke and each one, singling out a defenseless clerk, raised bumps about his head that took weeks to fully heal. The vicious insects were finally killed, but not until after they had made it necessary for six clerks to take furloughs of several days. It is very difficult to train people not to mail liquids, and in one instance a bottle containing some kind of acid broke, rendering indecipherable a considerable quantity of mail matter. One of the inspectors is responsible for the story that a woman living in the country where there was no express office wanted to send her daughter, who had removed to Chicago, some home-made butter. She tied it up nicely, and it started. The butter was solid when it left the country postoffice, but it had to be transferred at a junction. There the sack containing it lay on the hot ground with the sun shining upon it all day, and by the time the sack was opened, it had run over everything in the sack. It would seem that there is scarcely an article weighing less than four pounds that has not at some time or other found its way into the United States mails, and the museum now maintained, had it been established many years ago and the proper attention paid to its maintenance, would now have been a very extensive one. rave been a very extensive one. The Los Angeles Theater was decorated last evening with a sparse gathering of chilly human beings, who shivered in the keen draught from the stage, and bowed before the convincing arguments of Hon. Billy Carlson, the illustrious Mayor of San Diego, as he industriously boomed the proposed new railroad which is to connect Southern California with Salt Lake, by bridging over the gap between the towns of Manvel in California and Milford in Utah, and thus connecting the Santa Fé road with the Union Pacific. The owners of the Nevada Southern Railroad have until April 16 in which to raise $175,000 for the redemption of the road, which was sold under foreclosure. If this is not done the option held upon the road by the Southern California and Salt Lake Railroad Company will expire, and every effort is of his perennial smile as he paced up and down the platform, fiourishing a stout cane, and shooting forth his arguments by jerks. The gallant Mayor's smile may be bright enough to gild a tombstone, and his heart is probably in the right place, but he does not shine as a public speaker. He labored long and vigorously with a somewhat unresponsive audience, explaining all about the past and present difficulties of the road, and its possible brilliant future when once in his hands.

He assured the audience of his full belief in the payment of debts at the rate of one hundred cents on the dollar, and also that funds were guaranteed to pay for the construction of the line to Milford. He congratulated himself upon being the bearer of good news to the people of Southern California and quite beamed with philanthropy when he assured the assembled representatives of the populace that the result of establishing his railroad would be to double the population of this favored land within an incredibly short space of time, as it would open up communications with the iron mines and coalifieds south of Milford.

Col. A. B. Hotchkiss was then called, and opened his speech with a shower of compliments all around; to Los Angeles, San Diego, the railroad, and especially to his "eloquent and brilliant young friend, the Mayor of San Diego." Col. Hotchkiss especially commended the unusual intelligence he saw shining forth from the audience before him, and proceeded to turn that intelligence into the proper channels by directing it to a proper view of the numerous benefits to be derived from the construction of the annual tourist crop, and in extending her buildings and public works until she was justly considered the pride of Southern California.

Watming up as he went on, Col. Hotchkiss feelingly referred again to his friend, the Mayor, "that brilliant young man of deestiny, whose smile was like a beacon on the path to Salt Lake, while his wand was ever ready to point out the way." The auddence warmed up enough to applaud this with ch

The desert country to be turned into a garden by irrigation was next taken up as a territory to be opened by the new railroad. The object of the meeting was declared to be an effort to induce people to think, and so realize the great necessity of a direct line up through that region. No contributions were called for, the speaker asseverated, but the benefits were as free as salvation.

Chicago to Omaha and other western points to Ogden."

A portion of the audience distinctly objected to this, and its adoption was barred by a wail of sturdy "noes." Mayor Carlson rose and objected to this course, and became quite excited in answering an objection made by one of the audience to any resolution which tended to give the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, more time on its debt.

Mayor Carlson was deeply hurt at the insinuation that he might, could, would, or should advocate anything detrimental to the interests of Southern California. He said that he was the only Mayor in California who dared to express an honest conviction, and proceeded to toot his own horn in vigorous style, and exalt his manliness and independence to the skies.

In spite of this, the "noes" rang out as determinedly as before, when the disputed clause was put to the vote, but there was also a chorus of "ayes," so Mr. Carlson declared that the resolution was adopted, and the meeting adjourned.

matic tires and all modern improvements, is charged against George Thompson, a young man who was taken to Pomona yesterday to answer to a charge of burglary.

George Thompson is not over 18 years old. But he is a daring thief. A few days ago he entered a room in a lodging-house in Los Angeles and looted a trunk. Then he descended to the street, and not caring to walk, calmiy appropriated a bicycle which had been left standing by the curb of a sidewalk. The day was pleasant and Thompson felt exhilarated, so he rode all the way to Pasadena. By the time he arrived there he had tired of his new wheel and longed for one of newer and more fashionable make. So he abandoned his trusty metal steed and selected a better one from the excellent stock which lined the streets. Not yet weary of adventure, he rode on to Pomona.

There he told a series of gaudy lies to A. J. Clogstons, a Pomona hlack-smith of a generous nature, and the hospitable man took him in and made a fovared guest of him for ten days. Sunday evening Mr. Clogstons's family went to church, leaving George Thompson to guard the house, But instead of virtuously reading the Bible and memorizing hymns, the unregenerate youth ransacked the house, Bossessed himself of a number of valuables easy to carry away and rode off on his stolen bleycle.

At San Gabriel he sold the bleycle and two watches for $9, and another watch. Then he returned to Los Angeles.

watch. Then he returned to Los Angeles.
Once arrived here, he went to work again and robbed two lodging-houses that are known of, and nobody knows how many besides. But here his career of giory was cut short. Detective Hawley and City Marshal Lorbeer of Pomona arersted him Wednesday. He will be examined in Pomona and then brought back here to answer to several complaints.

Count Zeppelein is the author and finisher of this aërial wonder, and of course its chief value is to be in making military reconnoisances. With a balloon sailing over the heads of the enemy, out of harm's way, what chances will there be for secret marches and other movements? It is the realization of the dream of the ages. Balloons there have been in number, and during our civil war Prof. Lowe had more marked success with the air ships than had ever been achieved before in time of war, but the difficulty of navigating them had not been overcome until now. The Count Zeppelein ship is said to be under perfect control.

The new Committee on Public Morals has already begun work. The following report to the Council was yesterday prepared by the committee, of which Councilman Kingery is chairman. "To the Honorable Council of the City of Los Angeles: Your Committee on Public Morals begs leave to report in the matter of petition from Methodist preachers' meeting, that such petition be referred to the City Engineer, with instructions to so amend all specifications for public work as to comply, with said petition."

gestion that the public market scheme be "given another whirl," the committee having the matter in charge yesterday woke from its lethargy, looked over the bids received several months ago, and then prepared this recommendation to the Council of the City of Los Angeles: Your Special Committee on Public Market Site beg leave to report recommending that all proposals feedly for a market site be rejected and the City Clerk instructed to readvertise for proposals."

SEWER COMMITTEE'S WORK.

SEWER COMMITTEE'S WORK. W. A. Stratton's petition to the Council, protesting against the sewering of a street from the west line of lot 17, a street from the west line of lot 17, block 7, Park tract, to the manhole at the intersection Pearl street with Bellevue avenue, was considered yesterday by the Sewer Committee of the Council. The building of the sewer was objected to because all property on the south side and half the property on the north side are provided with a sewer, and the two premises not provided for can connect with the sewer on Bellevue. This protest against a sewer, with a similar one in relation to a sewer on Sixth street and Crocker avenue, was referred by the committee to the Health Officer to investigate and report to the Council concerning the justness of the protests.

EXORBITANT CHARGES.

Councilman Kingery Denounces the Some people have wondered why the partment do not produce a better condition of the highways and byways in Los Angeles.

Councilman Kingery claims to have discovered why. His idea is that the discovered way. His idea is that the money is eaten up by the department inspectors, who kill time while looking after street improvements and run up big bills for inspection work, which the property owners have in the end to pay. Councilman Kingery has a specific instance to cite, where he thinks the instance to cite, where he thinks the instance to cite, where he thinks the instance to cite the council of t instance to cite, where he thinks the bill for an inspector's salary is just 100 per cent. too much. As chairman of the Sewer Committee the Councilman is cognizant of all matters connected with the construction of sewers throughout the city, and a close watch is kept by him over the expenditures that are made by the various departments who have to do with these same ments who have to do with these same sewers.

"Now," said the venerable Councilman from the Fourth Ward to a Times reporter, "here is a bill for the building of a sewer on Twenty-third and Santee streets, including two flush tanks and two manholes. This sewer is 1215 feet long. The City Engineer, who certainly ought to know, says it could easily be built in nine days. Yet here the Street Superintendent's inspector has presented a bill for $58.50, representing nineteen and one-half days' work, at $3 a day. This is an outrageous, exorbitant charge, and I propose to see if a way cannot be found to remedy such a system as this, where the property owners can be cinched. the property owners can be cinched without let or limit by a greedy, grasp without let or limit by a greedy, grasping inspector."

City Engineer Compton is of the opinion that an unnecessary length of time was employed by the inspector and contractor in this work, as it is quite easy to lay 200 feet of sewer a day, whereas, in this case, only sixty-five feet a day was built.

PARK COMMISSIONERS.

Expert's Suggestions.

Name Selected for a New Park—An Expert's Suggestions.

The question of giving a name to the new park at the western limits of the city, near Westlake Park, was discussed by the Park Commissioners at their regular meeting yesterday. Upon the motion of Capt. Cross it was decided to christen the grounds with the name "Sunset Park."

A proposal of the Consolidated Pipe Company to supply pipe for the department was accepted, a recommendation being made to the Council that a contract be entered into for the purchase of the following amount of pipe: Five hundred feet. S-inch, 42% cents; 100 feet, 6-inch, 36 cents; 1000 feet, 4-inch, 20% cents; 1600 feet, 2-inch, 20% cents; 1200 feet, 2-inch, 30.35 per 100 feet; 1-inch, 4 cents. All the pipe is to be dipped and delivered, and the 6, 8 and the 4-inch pipe is to be laid.

The Mayor presented to the board the following communication received by him from Joseph Earnshaw, a land-scape engineer of Cincinnati, O., who is at present in this city:

"In response to your kind invitation to suggest any improvements to the city parks that might occur to me during my temporary stay in Los Angeles, I take the liberty of referring to a change in Westlake Park, which seems to be desirable, and one which, owing to the extensive grading now being done in that locality, could probably be effected at a reasonable expense.

west of Alvarado street, be filled up to a proper grade, and the space utilized for the benefit of visitors, and especially those attracted to the park on concert days. The park now contains a much larger proportion of water surface than is either necessary or desirable; the portion of the lake referred to is rarely used, for boating purposes, and might, when filled, be laid out so as to enhance the beauty of the park, and also provide a large carriage space, which, in connection with a driveway partially around the edge of the lake, and intersecting the main avenue, a little west of Alvarado street, would relieve the streets in the vicinity that are now often dangerously block-aded on musical occasions. The present walks are generally remote from the termini of the street railways, and additional walks near the principal entrance are needed, as they would afford direct access to the music-stand and boathouse, which are the two principal objects of interest to the general public.

"Although not strictly in the nature and boathouse, which are the two principal objects of interest to the general public.

"Although not strictly in the nature of a park suggestion, F would further remark, from what I have observed, that the services of a platting and gardening commission, controlling the lines, grades and widths of streets, might result in a marked improvement in the future appearances of this city, as no offset would then be permitted in the lines of the streets, which should be continuous, and the grades of the streets would not, on account of a false economy, so nearly conform to the original surface of the ground, as at present, but would, by a general deepening of the cuts, be established with reference to easy, permanent grades for public travel, and the furnishing of sufficient material for the proper development of the low adjacent lots, instead of allowing street improvements to be located and made according to locally selfish views of property-holders, whose real interests would be better promoted by the joint intelligent action of said commission and the City Engineer."

These suggestions received favorable consideration at the hands of the commissioners, and may be acted upon in the future.

The Park Superintendent was directed to investigate and report as to the advisability of cutting out trees opposite the Nob Hill tract, near the Westlake Park limits. A communication from the Chamber of Commerce secretary in reference to a liberty-pole for Central Park, was referred to Commissioners Gross and Teed, who are to confer with the Fiesta Committee, they being given power to act in the matter.

Mrs. L. B. Hamilton, a block of flats on Eighth and Moore streets, to cost $1975.

E. C. Shinley, a dwelling on Fighth. E. C. Shipley, a dwelling on Eighth street between Clark and Towne ave-nue, to cost $950.

Street Improvements.

Ordinarily the bids received by the City Council for the improvement of streets vary but little for the different classes of work to be performed, but there seems to have been a change in the bids, within the last few weeks, notably in the bid for the improvement of Sixth street from Bixel to Burlington avenue. The City Engineer's estimate on this work was at the rate of $1.80 per front foot on each side, or about $3.60 per lineal foot for the street, while the bids were from $3.75 to $6.75 per lineal foot for the grading and graveling only, showing a great variation from his estimates. This work it to be completed under the bond act, and from the estimate of the City Engineer and the bid that was awarded, the contractors will not become millionaires from this job.

City Hall Notes

With the completion of sewer districts No. 4 and No. 6, the larger sewer districts laid out during the past two districts and out during the past two years will have been completed, leav-ing only that portion of the city east of San Pedro street and portions of Boyle Heights without proper sewers. The amount of street grading is con-tantly increasing, contracts being in force now for many miles of grading.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

THE COURTS.

Against His Daughter.

The venerable, white-haired father of udge Brousseau appeared yesterday The n Judge Pierce's court as plaintiff in suit against his daughter, Mrs. Lizzle B. Sage, who appears to have been the reverse of dutiful and affectionate in her treatment of her aged father.

The old gentleman, who is past 83, had the misfortune to lose his wife last November, after a wedded life of sixty-three years. Mr. Brousseau was pros-three years. Mr. Brousseau was prostrated with grief at his bereavement, and, as he pathetically said on the stand, those were dark days at the time of her death, and his mind was dim and clouded with grief. While in this state, he took the fancy of leaving what little property he had to his daughter, Mrs. Sage, who was living with her parents. Mrs. Sage had been kind and affectionate during her mother's illness, and the old man had implicit trust in her. Having been deserted by her husband, whose whereabouts are now unknown, her only home was with her father, and the old man conceived the idea of willing all his property to her upon condition that she remain with him and take care of him in his old age.

Upon his expressing this wish, Mrs. Sage got D. P. Hatch, Esq., to draw up a deed instead of a will. Mr. Brousseau knew the change in the character of the document, but signed it with the express understanding that his daughter, when the place should stand in her name, should care for and support him during the remainder of his life.

Mrs. Sage and her son-continued to live at the old man's home, but a sudden change appears to have come over the behavior of both. It is alleged that the feeble old man was treated with disrespect and downright abuse. He asked them to go away and leave him to himself, but Mrs. Sage refused, saying that he could not help himself now. As this property is all that belongs to the old man, he is now suing to recover it, on the ground that the agreement has been broken by his daughter. The place was mortgaged for $500 in order to pay Mrs. Brousseau's funeral expenses and provide a spot for her last resting-place in Evergreen Cemetery.

An unfortunate family disagreement had caused the old man to separate

ANOTHER CONDEMNATION SUIT.

sadena and Pacific Railway Wants

Judge McKinley was hearing the trial yesterday of a suit to condemn a right-of-way for the Pasadena and Pacific Italiway between here and Santa Monica, over a portion of the rancho known as Rodeo de las Aquas, rancho known as Rodeo de las Aquas, which is owned by Mrs. Marie Hammel and Mrs. Louise A. Denker. The sum of $6000 has been demanded for the seven acres which it will be necessary to condemn for the right-of-way. The railway company claims that a free offer had been made to give them the right-of-way and 100 acres besides, if they would build a road from Les Angeles to Santa Monica, but the owners of Rodeo de las Aquas now claim of Rodeo de las Aquas now claim heavy damages for alleged injury to their property.

A FINAL ACCOUNTING.

Estate of Bridget Kennedy Once

Miss Gertrude Kennedy who, with her younger brother, Mark, inherited the estate of her mother, Mrs. Bridget the estate of her mother, Mrs. Bridget Kennedy, has just attained her majority, and the final accounting of the guardian, Mrs. Florence Thurston, came up before Judge Clark yesterday for approval. The estate amounts only to $1465, and the heirs object to certain bills put in by Mrs. Thurston as demands against the property. One claim of $510 for three years' board for Miss Kennedy, is especially disputed, claim of $510 for three years obtard for Miss Kennedy, is especially disputed, as it is claimed that Miss Kennedy rendered domestic services in Mrs. Thurston's house, quite sufficient to compensate her guardian for any expense she might have been.

New School Districts Formed in Several Places.

The Board of Supervisors yesterday granted the residents of Leonis Valley, situated between Antelope Valley and Palmdale, about 100 miles from Los Angeles, permission to form a new school district, to be known as the Leona School District.

The board has ordered to be advertised the sale of the San Antonio pipeline franchise, the bids to be opened on April 7 at 2 pm. The bond of F. A. Murphy, for $1000 was approved.

Upon advice of the County School Superintendent, the board denied permission to form the new Lowell School District, as it would injure Evergreen School District, without being strong enough to stand alone.

Being disapproved by the County-School Superintendent, the petitions and Del Sur and Elizabeth Lake, were denied.

Permission was granted to establish new school districts bearing the names of Lugo and Compton, Wiseburn and Del Sur and Fairmount.

The petition of the University of Southern California for the vacation of Centinela street between Wesley and Santa Monica avenues, was set for hearing on March 25.

In answer to a request from property-owners who wish to improve Glendale avenue by grading it from the San Fernando Road to the mouth of Verdugo Cañon, the board ordered that 350 be transferred to the Los Angeles road fund, as soon as the grading shall have been completed.

Bids for groceries for the County Hospital were ordered to be advertised and will be opened on March 25.

THE SUPREME COURT.

ANOTHER DECISION AFFIRMED.

Judgment has been affirmed in the case of George H. Deacon vs. H. A. Blodget, a suit brought to recover $35 and interest on an agreement by which Blodget promised to pay the abovementioned sum if Deacon should succeed in selling some land which was placed in his hands by Blodget. The money was, in any case, to be paid one year from date, and sooner if Deacon sould realize on the land, and recover the amount of the note from the purchase price. The land was not sold, and Blodget refused to pay. The court held for Deacong on the ground that the possible sale of the land was only a part of the agreement, and that Blodget was obliged to pay the sum at the expiration of the year. This judgment was sustained.

A ball and a banquet with great splendor was to have been given, and the local colony had set its heart upon making the day historic. Still the little company of Italians had a most enjoyable time, and by half-past two had said many loving words about their romantic country, and friendships new and old had found a great opportunity for advancement.

Capt Bertilini and the eight officers of the famous ship were the center of admiration and their speeches were warmly applauded. The officers left on the 5 o'clock train for San Pedro, and were under way for San Diego at 10 o'clock in the evening. The rest of the band made social calls upon the leading Italian residents, and the San Francisco delegation, which included Cav. Bruno Grimaldi, Italian Consul, and J. F. Fugazi, president of the Columbus Savings Bank, took the 8:15 train for that city.

About 150 Italians and others from this city went down to San Pedro in the afternoon and visited the Cristoforo Colombo. The visitors were hospitably entertained on board, and about a dozen of them had the satisfaction of seeing the prince, who was confined to his stateroom with a lame arm.

KILLED BY A TRAIN. A Port Los Angeles Roustabout Run

The train on the Southern Pacific leaving the wharf at Port Los Angeles at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon ran over and killed a man near the foot of Arizona avenue. The victim proved to be George Parker, a wharf roustabout, who lay across both tracks. The engineer whistled when he saw the man on the track, and tried to stop the man on the track, and tried to stop the train, but it was too late. Parker paid no attention to the whistle. Presumably he was drunk, as a demijohn partly filled was found near the spot. The victim's head was crushed and both feet cut off. Death was instantaneous. The man was middle-aged and leaves no family, so far as known. J. I. Comstock declares his belief that Parker committed suicide, for he says he saw him fling himself across the track, right in front of the train.

THE CITRUS EXHIBIT. Visited Yesterday by a Large Num ber of People.

The Chamber of Commerce was crowded yesterday with visitors from the cold and effete East. The delights of the fruit exhibit appeared to be a very strong attraction, but none of the other marvels were slighted. After the judges have pronounced judgment on other marvels were slighted. After the judges have pronounced judgment on the display, the several boxes will be sold at public auction.

The donation book records the following gifts: E. C. Whitton of Pico Heights, gold ore from Black Hawk mining district an Pachaca Mining Company, Ivanpah district, and lemons from L. D. Woodworth, B. L. Reynolds and W. C. Ormiston, all of Azusa.

So sings Emerson, "the sage of Concord," enforcing the lesson that the mind of the Grecian sculptor was fully ripened and equipped for the works that have made him immortal. Better Feeling in Real Estate Circles.

Improved Outlook for Broadway Property.

The Hill Section Still Takes the ead—New Tract in the Norther Part of the City—Influence of Architecture-Building.

The rain has had an excellent effect on the real estate market. Although not many important sales have been made during the week, there is a better feeling all around, and dealers are far more hopeful than they have been for

The agents report the sale of about half the lots that were offered in the Na-deau Orange tract on Central avenue and Jefferson street, on Saturday last, at prices ranging from $175 to $550. Par-ties are negotiating to take half the unsold lots at a price that will leave them a good margin in selling them again. This sale shows how property has pickedup in the southern part of the city during the past year. A year ago it would have been impossible to ob-tain any such figures for lots in that

THE HILLS.

THE HILLS.

The march of improvement still continues in the western hill section at a remarkable rate. Prices are very firmly held in this section, and most of the improvements going up there are of a first-class character. In the Wilshire tract, C. Leonardt has just obtained the biggest contract ever let for cement sidewalks in one tract, the total smounting to about $13,000.

In considering the growing popularity of the hill sections in Los Angeles it should be remembered that these are comparatively limited, being confined to the northwestern and northeastern portions of the city. The mortheastern section is somewhat out of the way, and the northwestern hills will probably not be opened for several years yet, so that really the only close-in hill section at present available is that limited district which lies between First and Seventh streets, west of Pearl. This fact is evidently beginning to dawn upon investors, and accounts, to some extent, for the rapid advance in prices that has taken place in the Westlake Park region.

The success that has attended the im-region.

The success that has attended the improvement of this hill section will doubtless lead some enterprising capitalists before long to take up the northwestern hills within the city, where the views are still more extensive than those from the hills around Westlake Park. SAN FRANCISCO CAPITAL.

ing the expenditure of $200,000 of San Francisco capital in Los Angeles city real estate. It is evident that while many of our local capitalists are hesitating about putting their money into Los Angeles property, outsiders are ready to recognize a good thing when they see it. Outside capital has had much to do with the upbuilding of Los Angeles. It might, however, be supposed that by this time our local capitalists would have satisfied themselves as to the brilliant future of this city, and would not be content to let good chances of profitable investment go to outsiders. There are some of our people who are always ready to consider a good opening, and them again there are others who do not appear to appreciate the chances they are missing.

CHINO.

It is stated that a representative of

It is stated that a representative of English capitalists will shoully be here who is empowered to close a deal for the Chino ranch, that has been pending for some time. These people have plenty of money, and if the deal is made there is every probability of interesting developments in that section. WIDENING BROADWAY.

teresting developments in that section.

WIDENING BROADWAY.

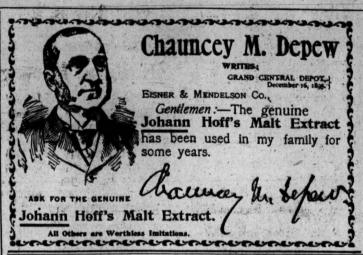

It is likely that we shall soon see quite an increase in transactions on Broadway, which have been few and far between during the past few months. There is no doubt that the commencement of work on the widening of South Broadway, from Ninth to Tenth, will have a stimulating effect on values all along that thoroughfare. This matter has been in the hands of the city authorities for a year, and is now all but consummated, having been finally passed on by the Council the 24th of last month, and letters of notification forwarded to owners of property stating the amount of assessment of each one in the prescribed district, from First to Pico streets. There was no protest at the final session of the Council, and so there was nothing to be done but to follow the usual course and give notice of each assessment by the commissioners. All assessments not paid by the 24th of March will be delinquent, but it is generally believed that there will be no delinquency whatever in view of the unanimous feeling of the people interested as to the expediency of widening; all in interest realizing the manifold advantage that will accrue from the improvement. Then Broadway will be one continuous ninety-foot thoroughfare, from end to end, and the jog which has so long affected all interests, especially those in close proximity, will be a thing of the past. With this obstacle removed we may, as stated, soon expect not a few changes of ownership.

THE COTTAGE HOME TRACT.

Meantime, with the promise of an

THE COTTAGE HOME TRACT. Meantime, with the promise of an early commencement on the tunnelling of North Broadway, values of property in that direction have been improving all along the line. One of the many vividences of improvement on the electric line toward the north is the Cottage Home tract, situated on Bueña Vista street, one block north of Bernard street, the property of William R. Burke and associates. Desiring to give satisfaction at the beginning and not wishing to sell on promises merely, the owners of this tract determined on a comprehensive plan of street grading, sewering, water-piping, paving and curbing, which has been in course for some weeks and is now all but accomplished. The site is an elevated one, commanding one of the prettiest views of the city, and already quite a number of lots have been sold. The property belonged to Bishop Mora for many years, and, instead of being a piece of waste ground, bids fair soon to be occupied by many people in ordinary circumstances, who prefer to own their own homes rather than be subjected to the monthly burden of rent-paying. The owners of this tract have given orders to ex-Superintendent of Parks Le Grande to plant shade trees, and to keep them in condition, between the sidewalks and curbing in front of each lot. The prices range from $350 upwards per lot.

INFLUENCE OF ARCHITECTURE.
One of the most noticeable features of the improvement that is seen on all Meantime, with the promise of an early commencement on the tunnelling ture, or perhaps it would be better to say of no style at all, being constructed after the "dry-goods box" pattern of building. Today all that is changed, and it is the exception when even a small cottage does not make some architectural pretensions. The mission style is rapidly growing in popularity, and oute a number of residences in this style, or modifications of the mission style, have been erected during the past year. The Call of San Francisco recently had the following remarks in regard to the influence of architecture on real estate values:

"Architectural aspect is beginning to assume a 'most important place in determining real estate values. Owners are taking yeat Jaterest in the cleverness and ability of architects. The merit of a plan and the dignity and simplicity of the composition of an elevation receives distinguished consideration in this day and generation.

"Apropos of the new municipal building to be erected upon the site of the old City Hall, attention is directed to that quarter of the city once more. Time was when it was the city, and Market, street was a series of sand hills. During the period of its original prosperity there were erected within its precincts many buildings of good architectural design. Some few, the old Globe Hotel, for example, have not been surpassed as far as correct principles of architectural composition are concerned, even by our newest and latest buildings uptown.

"It is a curious and amazing study to trace the development of popular taste as expressed by public and private buildings erected at different periods in the progress of the improvement of the State.

"The earliest efforts were, of course, the old missions. Their charm rests entirely in the fact that their builders recognized the value of simplicity and were influenced, as far as detail was concerned, by the Mexican and Spanish classic renaissance.

"The earliest efforts were, of course, the old missions. Their charm rests entirely in the fact that their buildings of the pioner days—mostly well-design

A SMALL ESTATE. A SMALL ESTATE.

Probably the smallest estate in the world is one in New York, which has a frontage on the street of exactly three feet and a depth of one foot. This estate, three square feet in extent, is situated at the corner of Fourteenth street and Irving place. All property in this vicinity has a fabulous value, and the smallest estate in New York is by no means the cheapest. It is valued at about $2000, or about $50 per square inch.

TO THE OCEAN.

To the ocean.

The prospect of an early completion of the electric line from Los Angeles to Santa Monica is already having a stimulating effect on values of property along the route, and also on real estate in Santa Monica, which city expects to double its permanent population within a year or two after the line is open to traffic.

One of the chief advantages of the electric line will be that it will undoubtedly lead to the speedy subdivision of the large ranches between the city and the sea, that now act as a barrier to the growth of Santa Monica, and to some extent of Los Angeles. With these ranches cut up into small farms of from five to twenty acres, there will come a demand for still greater transportation facilities, and we may expect to see a network of electric roads extending from Los Angeles to the ocean within the next five years, while the entire territory that is mainly devoted to pasturage will be practically a suburb of Los Angeles.

THE WAVES ROLLED HIGH. The Ship Dunboyne at Port Lo

Later investigation makes it apparent that the damage threatened at Port Los Angeles by the storm Monday was much more serious than at first re-ponted. While the special dispatch from Port Los Angeles printed in Tuesday's ponted. While the special dispatch from Port Los Angeles printed in Tuesday's Times stated the essential facts, there were other important details. The waves rolled so high as to come within nearly a foot of the top of the wharf. Seamen say that with a wind blowing continually in the same direction the waves will continue to increase in force. Had the gale continued to blow from the same direction for twenty-four hours or more longer and at the same rate of speed, the waves would therefore probably have increased in fury sufficient to pass the danger point. Their force coming up under the wharf would have been simply tremendous. While the wharf might not have succumbed to the strain it is probable that property on it would have seriously suffered. Had the ship Dumboyne, which was anchored to the south side of the wharf, remained where she was but a short time longer her pounding against the wharf must have done great injury.

When the only tug stationed about there attempted to tow her out to anchorage the tug was seen to make a seemingly futile struggle against the seas and wind, after which, with the assistance of a line thrown from the passenger steamer Corona, which fortunately was in the vicinity, the making of the distance out necessary for anchorage was accomplished. The fact that the Corona was permitted to give a line to the tug offords foundation for the belief that it was thought the tug unaided could not tow the Dunboyne out. Such assistance would not be likely to be accepted save in case of sore need, for it is probable a big price will have to be paid for salvage. The amount of the salvage will, it is believed, not be made public, but rather be quietly paid under pledge of secrecy, as it might injure the reputation of the place for salvage known. Times stated the essential facts, the Billett Convicted for Unlawfully Possessing Counterfeiting Tools.

In the United States District Court yesterday before Judge Wellborn, the day was devoted to the trial of R. W. Billett, charged with having in his possession a mould for the purpose of unlawfully manufacturing money. The defense offered no testimony, contending that the government was unable to prove its case.

The District Attorney did not attempt to show that Billett had ever been seen to use the invention, but that his possession of the article, together with the fact that plaster-of-paris and other materials for its construction had been found in his room, was sufficient for conviction.

The jurymen called for new instructions after they had been out a few minutes. They were in doubt as to the word intent, desiring to know if the possession implied unlawful use. Judge Wellborn stated that the entire evidence should determine. Then a verdict of guilty was brought in. Billett of fered an explanation afterward, stating that he had secured the mould as a curiosity to show his children, and his occupation as a plasterer would account for the materials found. Sentence will be pronounced Monday.

The criticism upon the proposed ordinance for the prohibition of noisy street gatherings is being made by some of the ultra-plous that it tends to the restriction of religious liberty. The business community favors the action of the Council, and is opposed to the granting of any "liberties" to one class of persons in the community to the restriction of the rights of the many, and, as the Salvation Army has a hall in which it may worship with all the lurid accompaniments which it may fancy, no hardship will be worked upon them. The only really offensive clause to that organization is that which specifies that the Council shall designate upon what streets their services shall not be held.

time for the primaries draws near As time for the primaries draws near, political feeling in Pasadena runs high, and almost the sole topic of conversation, "where two or three are gathered together," is the forthcoming struggle and its probable outcome. The sentiment is growing among Republicans in favor of a good strong municipal ticket, and an earnest effort will be made at the primaries to select delegates qualified to put such a ticket in the field, and to work for it. Under cover of the citizens ticket men who have persisttizens' ticket men who have tily attempted in the past to fice by the suffrage of their party and have been ignominiously defeated are making the attempt again, and seek by disrupting the ranks of the party and by bringing unfounded and absurd charges against Republicans prominent in local municipal politics to achieve this result.

charges against Republicans prominent in local municipal politics to achieve this result.

The local paper which is the organ of the citizen's ticket even goes so far as to make charges that the Street Superintendent and other prominent Republicans have threatened to discharge from their employ men who refuse to pledge themselves to the support of the Republican ticket straight. The Street Superintendent is not a favorite with many stright Republicans, but his veracity is unquestioned, and when he denies over his signature that any employé of the street department has ever been so theatened, and asks that the charge be published over the name of the persons alleging that they have been so threatened; in justice and fairness, it is granted, even by his enemies, that his request should be complied with. The only attempt at coercion in this municipal campaign was the black-bordered circular sent out by the local "bosses" of the A.P.A. organization, which contained a covert threat, and against which every fair-minded and right-thinking man in the organization and out of it has his emphatic opinion, and which will probably be expressed, if preflection resolves go for anything, in such a manner at the ballot-box that the experiment will never again be tried. The best men in the A.P.A. or and which will probably be expressed, if preelection resolves go for anything, in such a manner at the ballot-box that the experiment will never again be tried. The best men in the A.P.A. organization have said that they will vote any tloket they please or no tloket at all, regardless of secret instructions. In Pasadena it seems to be the old story of "the outs want to get in." but this is not a community where men can be coerced into any action of which the conscience disaprroves, and they will not be driven to any course of action, regardless of their own personal convictions. Carl Schurz, and the other mugwump fetiches, which were trotted out by the delegation from the Citizens' party before the Republicans assembled at the meeting in the Recorder's court, smell rank in the nostrils of the straight local Republicans, and the question raised as to whether the franchise granted to the negro was wise, which was also raised by one of the delegation from the citizen's party at that meeting, is not a question which local men in this community, either black or white, care to have reopened. Too many of the Republicans of Pasadena chorish traditions of Gettysburg, Antetam, marches under southern suns and in the dust and mud of southern roads, for the sake of achieving the ballot-box and liberty for the black man, to hear a question of the wisdom of that sacrifice questioned, more especially, when the colored people in this community stand as a living with a community stand as a living with a community stand as a living with the community at the man to the new era; people who, in intelligence, obedience to law, and venture of the new era; people who, in intelligence, obedience to law, and venture of the new era; people who, in intelligence, obedience to law, and venture of the new era; people who, in intelligence, obedience to law, and venture of the new era; people who, in intelligence, obedience to law, and venture of the new era; people who, in intelligence of the men wera; people who, in intelligence of the men we

Republican meeting were not acting arbitrarily, as is claimed by some of the opposition, but as they were appointed by the Republicans two years ago, for the purpose of holding the organization together, and will hold until the next convention, they but did their plain duty. The caucuses will be held Friday evening, March 6, in the Lake Vineyard Land and Water Company's office, the Recorder's courtroom, the Banning Block, on South Raymond avenue, the Morgan Block, Raymond avenue, and every voter in the community, who tavors straight republican nominations, is urred to attend, to cast his vote for the delegates in his ward, and to see to it that his personal influence in municipal affairs is not lacking. The Citizens' Committee holds its caucus, meeting Safurday evening, and the places of these caucuses will be announced.

MONROVIA, March 5.—(Regular Cor-espondence.) The steady growth that has characterized this town and comhas characterized this town and community throughout the present season was given a great boost by the recent rains, but the citizens will conscientiously guard against any semblance of a boom, frankly acknowledging a surfeit in that line years ago. While there are no extensive new enterprises to report at this time, there are a number in embryo that will be heard from soon. General improvement is in the very atmosphere, and dwellings are being repaired, built on to, repainted and grounds improved; while a number of new buildings are being erected. The various committees having the management of next Wednesday's excursion in charge are at work in earnest, determined to give everyone who corsion in charge are at work in earn-est, determined to give everyone who comes a good time. ### SLIGHTED THEIR TASKS.

Report is Discredited.

NEW YORK, March 5.-The Herald this morning says that the Nicaragua Canal Company met yesterday, but the proceedings of the directors were not made public. Yet the object of the meeting and the matters discussed had a very important bearing on the report of the commission of engineers which was sent to Panama by the government to report whether or not the ment to report whether or not the United States would be justified in becoming the guarantor for the success of the undertaking. The canal company is determined to contest the report of the commission, which was unfavorable to the work of the engineers of the company.

The directors declare that the government engineers, before they started on their trip to Greytown, spent nearly two weeks in this city inspecting the maps and surveys of the company. In this they were assisted in every way, so that they might proceed on their work with the least possible hindrance. The directors say the commission's expenses could not have been kept within the appropriation made by Congress, and so the company provided the engineers with guides and natives to cut paths for them on their tour of inspection. Seventy or eighty men were thus employed by the company in behalf of the commission. Chief Engineer Monocal of the Nicaragua Canal Company accompanied the engineers on their tour from the site of the Pacific entrance to the canal to the harbor of Greytown.

oor of Greytown. But the directors say that, instead of But the directors say that, instead of the government engineers making a thorough study of the whole route of the canal, as the report to the government would seem to assume, they decided that they would not go over the ground covered by the great lock, at which the chief engineering difficulties of the old canal present themselves, but would go around this and proceed on the other side. The contest on the report will be made on this omission, for the government engineers declare that here the estimates of the company's engineers are far too low. The directors say Chief Engineer Monocal kept a diary of incidents of this trip of inspection, and he will be in a position to prove to the government that not only did this neglect of duty occur, but there were other incidents which would destroy the value of the engineers' report. The company will present the evidence at the public hearing on the commission's report.

He shows that, to make any decided impression, it will be necessary to avoid confusing the eastern public by frittering away our energies in too much detail, or by publishing sensational lies. will have to spend a great deal of money to do it, and then its name will be promptly pirated by other people, nor can this be prevented. By all means, therefore, if we desire to spend advertising money economically, let us advertise California products, and not those of one locality.

"After all, the main thing is the judgment and ability of those who expend the money. It must be spent by those who are actually selling goods, and that means the exchanges. It must be continued from year to year, and always under the same management, which will gradually learn the trade. The California Fruit Exchange voted to make the manager of the Affiliated Exchanges at San José its manager. These exchanges, we are informed, are ready to accept this duty whenever exchanges in other parts of the State make provision for their share of the expense. There is evidently a clear, logical and effective way provided for those who wish to coöperate in any form of market extension, and aose who do not take it have only themselves to blame. The leaders of coöperation have settled down to the wise resolution that, while they will continue to lead if desired, they will continue to lead if movement of their own accord. The initial socies were irregular with the changes unimportent, but downward in tendency. The London cables reported lower prices at that center. The early course of the greatest list was practic, but tending toward a lower level, and the volume of business was light. Subsequently improvement followed. The market closed weak in one with general net losses extending in some instances to a point. The reliway bond market was dull but firm. The distribution of business was fairly good and in some cases decided improvements were noted. Northern Pacific feirds were active and rose 2 per cent, but subsequently lost most of the gain, the dividend scrip extended, jumped to 70 and reacted to 65. The net gains in the other issues ranged between 1 and 2% per cent. The total sales were 34,00,000. Government bonds were quite active, and a slight improvement occurred in the prices of the new fours. The transactions footed up $311,900. Shares and Money.

which will have a considerable effect on the fruit market, has been perfected in San Francisco. The inventor is Robert P. Hume, one of the Hume Brothers, the well-known-canners and shippers of salmon. According to the San Francisco Chronicle he has studied and worked, experimented and improved, added and revised during the last four years, until he has perfected the apparatus and appliances to such a degree that he can manufacture more tin cans of any desired kind, size or shape, at much smaller expense and in shorter time than the best-equipped factory can turn out by the ald of the latest and best improved machinery with twenty times the number of hands. It is said that all who have seen the machine in operation are astonished at what it can do in a minute and how well it does it. The Chronicle gives the following description of the process:

"The tin is cut in sizes to get out a certain number of cans without wasting a strip of metal. A boy or girl only tall enough to reach up to the machine, which is the height of an ordinary table, feeds the tin to the receptacle at one end of the machine and the machine end of the machine which is the height of an ordinary table, feeds the tin to the receptacle at one end of the machine and the machine end sixty-four cans of any size or shape each, minute. The cans are deposited in a receptacle, perfectly soldered in the seam and bottom, with a perfect-fitting cover on top, clean, neat and ready to be filled. At this rate a single machine will turn out 38,400 cans a day of ten working hours, requiring only a boy of about 12 years to feed it. The number of machines can be multiplied in proportion to the requirements of a cannery, and, as they consume very little space, a factory of moderate proportions can accommodate a large number of only one boy. The first machine which was in operation in Mr. Hume's cannery turned out 1,000,000 in about a month. A solitary tinker flattenting the seam of one can with a hammer will create more noise than ten machines running at full spee

CANADA TO FORTIFY.

Loan of Three Million Dollars Will Be Asked. (BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.) OTTAWA (Ont.,) March 5.-In

OTTAWA (Ont.) March 5.—In the Senate tonight Senator McDonald of British Columbia called attention to the importance of fortifications being erected at Seymour Narrows, the northern entrance to the passage between Vancouver Island, the mainland and the Straits of Fuca, the southern entrance. Without these narrows being fortified the expensive works at Esquimalt could be attacked by an enemy from the rear.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell replied that the importance of improving the defences of the country, owing to events which had taken place during the past few months, had induced the government to ask Parliament to grant a loan of $3,000,000, to be expended in improving militia and defense. He admitted the importance of fortifications at Seymour Narrows, and, although he had no official information, he thought income the construction. engineers engaged at Esquimalt in-tended recommending the construction of fortifications at that point.

THE BLUE-BOOK COMPILERS.
LONDON, March 6.—The Chronicle announces that Lord Salisbury appointed a special committee to compile the Venezuelan blue book, over which Sir Thomas H. Sanderson, chief permanent secretary of the Foreign Office, presided; Sir. Richard Webester, who was of the British counsel before the Bering Sea Tribunal; Sir Frederick Pollock, who prepared the British case, and C. T. Harris, assistant, in addition to two members, whose names are withheld. The Chronicle adds: "The committee sat some twelve hours daily."

Smashed Twenty-seven Records.

The Syracuse team, D. G. Schafer, W. W. Hamilton, E. W. Swanbrough, A. B. Stone and H. B. Conibear, will go east on the Santa Fé this morning. The last four will stop at Denver, and Schafer will go to Syracuse. The team is perfectly satisfied with the three months' work at Coronado, having established twenty-seven world's records. Last Monday the mile, two-third's paced, the one-third unpaced, and the half-mile tandem were captured. More world's records in a similar length of time belong to this aggregation than to any other. Stone and Conibear will try the unpaced tandem at Denver.

Holmes to Hang.

HARRISBURG, (Pa.,) March 5.—The date for the execution of H. H. Holmes, the convicted murderer, was fixed by Gov. Hastings today. He named Thursday, May 7, as the date. The decision of the Supreme Court affirming the judgment of the lower court was received at the executive department and was laid before the Governor. The Governor said Holmes should have at least sixty days in which to prepare for death, and selected the time accordingly. The death-warrant was at once prepared and forwarded to Sheriff Clement at Philadelphia.

The Kattowitz Victims.

BERLIN, March 5.—Up to this morning seventy-one bodies of the victims of the Cleophas coal-mine disaster at Kattowitz, Prussian Silesia, have been brought to the surface. These included four volunteers in the work of resuce who were overcome by the heat. It is believed that about fifty miners are still unaccounted for.

Edward Rodger's Strange Experience in Los Angeles.

le Tells an Incredulous Story of a Thrilling ape Prom. Death - For Four Mortal Hours Beath Seemed Incyltable. A Timely Rescue.

There came a stranger to Los Angeles recently from the distant State of Maine who had never crossed the Missouri River before and knew nothing of the great plains or the habits of the denizens of the "wild and woolly" West. The gentleman's name is Edward Rodgers and his home is in Bangor, where he was born, educated, grew to manhood, engaged in commercial pursuits, by which he acquired an independent competence, and reared an interesting family of boys and girls, some of whom have attained their majority. Mr. Rodgers came to California to escape the rigors of the winter peculiar to his native State, and with the hope of recuperating his health in this semi-tropical climate, beneath our sunny Italian skies. He tells a remarkable story of a wonderful and thrilling experience with a strange person in this city which rivals the most extravagant fiction. There are plenty of people in Los Angeles, however, who will vouch for the accuracy of what Mr. Rodgers tells of his hairbrasdith escape from death and his timely rescue. His story is herewith briedly submitted:

Said Mr. Rodgers: "I am a native of Ban-root and instened upon my system that threatened to entirely undermine my life, and I had the cheerless prospect of an early grave in view.

"My sufferings became more extreme with the lapse of time until my existence became a hideous nightmare. I consulted the best medical skill to be found in the cities of the East, and each physician informed me that I was a physical wreck. My troubles were diagnosed as constipation, kidney trouble, dyspepsia, chronic gastritis, nervounees, insomnia and a host of other diseases, and, indeed, it seemed to me I had contracted every aliment in the catagory. For the past fifteen years my existence has been a living death. It would be a waste of words to attempt to describe the sleepless nights of torture I endured, the days of agony, the months and years of misery that racked my body, until I was reduced to a mere skeleton. A month ago I was advised to seek a less rigorous tilmate by my physician, for he feared I could not survive the climatic changes incident to the spring season. I arrived here a week ago in a state of exhaustion. I was carried to a hack and driven to a hotel, where I had to be assisted to my room and a doctor was summoned. For four mortal hours my life was month of the presence of the Boy Wizard in Los Angeles. I had heard of his fame in the East and was determined, if ever I had the good fortune to be within reasonable distance of him, to take a course of treatments. I lost no time in locating his office, and that afternoon was driven thither. I did not stand on ceremony, but purchased a consultation ticket immediately and, by special request, was ushered into his operating rooms. The moment his magnetic hands were placed upon my emaclated body I was thrilled with new life, my suffering began to dissipate, and when after a half-hour treatment I was absolutely free from pain, I walked unsided from the office, down the stairs to the street, when I dismissed the hackman and walked to the hotel. I at a hearty supper that night, the first in fifteen years, and sl are beyond the power of expression. It is simply, purely and unquestionably a miracle, a transformation of a dried-up, dilapitated parcel of bones, skin and sinews, to strong, buoyant manhood. I have been in the habit here-tofore of growing older and feebler with the lapse of months and years, but now I find myself growing younger and stronger everyhour. I think I'll soon be an athletic youth again. I have telegraphed and written my wife and family the glad tidings of my sudden restoration to health and streagth, and I thank God that I ever met the Boy Wizard."

Those who are suffering with any of the numerous chronic aliments that make life a burden, and wish to be cured, may obtain the same relief that was afforded Mr. Rodgers and hundreds of our most prominent citizens, by calling at the permanent offices of the Pacific Coast Magnetic Institute, corner Third and Broadway.

Sing was a restaurant-keeper, and was seen at his place of business Wednesday evening. The information which has reached this place is very meager, but it is considered unquestionably a case of murder.

FRUIT PROSPECTS.

No oranges are being picked now, owing to the storm, and shipments will be interrupted for a few days. The trees are setting exceptionally full of buds at an uncommonly early season for the next crop. This is considered a good omen, as early fruit is a desideratum since Florida has been out of the field as a producer. If the present season is a criterion, good prices can be expected for the holiday trade, while the quantity will be increased and the quality much above that of the present season. FRUIT PROSPECTS.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS. At the Supervisors' meeting Wednesday the report of the Hortcultural Commission was read. It shows that nineteen men were employed during the month, at a cost of $716,97. There were inspected 786 acres of citrus fruit and 1286 acres of deciduous fruit; 286 citrus and 984 deciduous trees were found infected with scale. Red scale found was fumigated.

POMONA.

The City Bonds-Agreeing on Term

POMONA, March 5.—(Regular Correspondence.) The City Trustees have had three short sessions today, and are in session as this report closes. The matter under consideration is the sale of the city bonds to the amount of $185,000 for the purpose of buying the Fleming & Becket water tunnel and for conveying the water to Pomona as a new domestic water system. The bid of Hayes & Co. of Cleveland, O., who agreed to day a premium of $18,000 for the bonds, was withdrawn by telegraph. Today there have been conferences between Messrs. Fleming & Becket and Attorners Summer & Tonner and the City Trustees about a new proposition to sell the bonds at a premium as large as that offered by Hayes & Co. and avoid the time and delay of another period of advertising for new bidders for the bonds. It is understood this evening that an agreement as to the terms of selling the bonds immediately at private sale has been agreed upon. There are suspicions of unfair play about the highest bid for the bonds, and they will be investigated by the Trustees.

A large number of Pomona people would like to vent their wrath upon some unknown person who has been throwing poisoned meat about town for the purpose of killing dogs.

The farmers say that it is now too late to sow grain and get a crop from it this year, unless the ground had been well prepared previous to the late rain storm, but that grain may be sown and a fine yield of hay raised therefrom. All barley and wheat sown in the last month is growing well, and with a little more rain, a few weeks hence, will bear abundantly.

The total rainfall of the season to date in Pomona has been eight and one-half inches. It has come easily and slowly, so that all has soaked into the ground and done as much good as twice that amount of rain coming down in sheets or floods.

The ladies of the Presbyterian Church have decided to repeat their popular Eden Musee entertainment at some date late in March.

This has been the finest winter season in some years for bleycling in Pomona Valley. The present rainy spell is the longest in the whole winter in which the wheelmen have been kept at home by rain and mud.

SAN DIEGO, March 5.—(Regular Correspondence.) William Carlson, Mayor of San Diego, held his transcontinental railway meeting at his office in this city on Wednesday. Neither the winds, the rains nor the other botsterous elements which have of late played fast and loose with the dignity of the bay'n climate, succeeded in lessening the everconstant enthusiasm manifested by the would-be railroad king of this city. According to William, the necessity of another railroad from San Diego to the East is one of the important questions of the closing years of the nineteenth century. The importance of its solution is paramount, beside which the importance of the Cuban, Venezuelan, Armenian and Lord Dunraven questions sink into a significance so minute as to be scarcely discernible. Even the question of abolishing the city water tax on sucking babes is not recognized by William as being of more importance than this railroad matter. According to expressions at this meeting, William does not limit himself to building a road merely from San Diego to Utah, He would like a road from here to Yuma. He repeated the statement that if San Diegans would guarantee 4 per Villiam Hendel Killed by J. Barker-Long-standing Trouble Over a Woman the Cause-The Murderer Surrenders Himself.

William Hendel was killed this

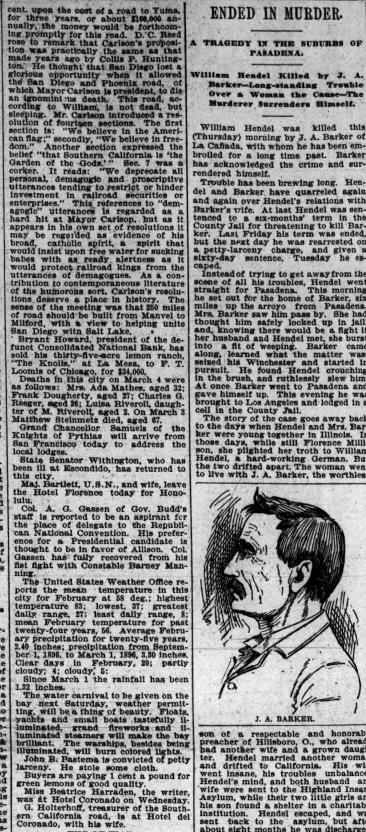

William Hendel was killed this (Thursday) morning by J. A. Barker of La Cañada, with whom he has been embroiled for a long time past. Barker has acknowledged the crime and surrendered himself.

Trouble has been brewing long. Hendel and Barker have quarreled again and again over Hendel's relations with Barker's vife. At last Hendel was sentenced to a six-months' term in the County Jail for threatening to kill Barker. Last Friday his term was ended, but the next day he was rearrested on a petty-larceny charge, and given a sixty-day sentence. Tuesday he escaped.

a petty-larceny charge, and given a sixty-day sentence. Tuesday he escaped.

Instead of trying to get away from the scene of all his troubles, Hendel went straight for Pasadena. This morning he set out for the home of Barker, six miles up the arroyo from Pasadena. Mrs. Barker saw him pass by. She had thought him safely locked up in jall, and, knowing there would be a fight if her husband and Hendel met, she burst into a fit of weeping. Barker came along, learned what the matter was, seized his Winchester and started in pursuit. He found Hendel crouching in the brush, and ruthlessly slew him. At once Barker went to Pasadena and gave himself up. This evening he was brought to Los Angeles and lodged in a cell in the County Jail.

The story of the case goes away back to the days when Hendel and Mrs. Barker were young together in Illinois. In those days, while still Florence Millison, she plighted her troth to William Hendel, a hard-working German. But the two drifted apart. The woman went to live with J. A. Barker, the worthless son of a respectable and honorable preacher of Hilisboro, O., who already had another wife and a grown daughter. Hendel married another woman, and drifted to California. His wife went insane, his troubles unbalanced Hendel's mind, and both husband and wife were sent to the Highland Insane Asylum, while their two little girls and his son found a shelter in a charitable institution. Hendel escaped, and was sent back to the asylum, but after about eight months he was discharged. Hendel got a job as driver of the 'bus which carries passengers from Pasadena to the sanitarium at Las Casitas, One day he met his old sweetheart on a Pasadena street. With a rush their old liking for each other returned. Criminal relations were established between the two.

Barker discovered that the woman had been false to him. Again and again he threatened to kill the German. But finally Barker showed his knowledge of Hendel's guilty relations with Mrs. Barker as a means of extorting money. He promised Hendel that if he would pay $50 he would agree not to disturb him any longer with threats of violence.

Hendel told him he could not possibly raise $50. Then Barker prompted him to wrongdoing. The German had been left in charge of the house of Mr Pierce while his family were at the county and wife of Richmond. SAN BERNARDINO, March 5.—(Regular Correspondence.) Mrs. Bradford Wheeler, wife of a civil engineer in the employ of the Southern Pacific Company, had a narrow escape this morning. She was walking into town from Colton on the Santa Fé track, and while crossing the Lytle Creek bridge she saw the Riverside special out of San Bernardino bearing down on her. Realizing the impossibility of reaching the end of the bridge, her strength gave way and she fell upon the ties. Still realizing the danger of her position, she rolled over the rail upon the projecting ties. Engineer Miller was himself horror-stricken to see the woman fall in front of his engine, and instantly reversed it. When it stopped the woman was found comparatively uninjured on the outer end of the ties, by the side of the engine, enveloped in a cloud of escaping steam. She was placed upon the train and taken to her hote in Colton. The nervous shock prostrated her, but there are no evidences of more serious injuries.

Hendel told him he could not possibly raise $50. Then Barker prompted him to wrongdoing. The German had been left in charge of the house of Mr. Pierce, while his family were at the seaside. Barker suggested that Hendel could sell this furniture. The German did as proposed and looted the house from top to bottom.

When he had cozened the victim of every cent possible, Barker renewed his threats of violence. Mrs. Barker wrote a loving note, warning her "Dear William" that her husnband was "laying for him." Hendel forthwith bought a revolver and went to the Barker home, which was then on Villa street, near Los Robles avenue, threatening to murder his old enemy.

For this Barker had him arrested and Judge Merriam sentenced him to six months in the County Jail. This term was finished last Friday and at once Hendel was rearrested and given a sixty-days' sentence for the selling of Mr. Rice's furniture. If he had but been content to serve out his sentence he would still be alive, but, drawn by the irreststible atachment to the Barker woman, he took the chance to escape from his imprisonment and hurried back as the moth is drawn to the candle. And thus he met his death.

Director Frank A. Miller, whose term expires in May, has the affairs of the asylum remarkably well in hand. He has kept close tab on the expenses by departments, following the system he uses in the hotel business. He says the directors have been criticised because of expenses incurred, but as a matter of fact the board have tried to be economical without being penurious. He said the other asylums use only brown sugar. This asylum uses white sugar at one-half a cent a pound more, and he believed white sugar more economical. The board had been criticised for using the best grade of rice, but he had found the cheaper grades were made up of shriveled grains, containing little nutriment. Another point made against the board was that it paid $5 per ton more for sait than the northern asylums, but the best grade of sait costs the asylum $3.50 per month. Still another point made against the board was the purchasing of tea at 24 cents per pound, when it is bought in the north for 13 cents. He believed that pure tea at 24 cents was cheaper than tea. adulterated with copperas at 13 cents. He said the total expenditure for raw food at the asylum amounted to but a trifle over 10 cents per capita per day, and compared that with the Jollet penitentiary, which was neversable to get below 9 cents per day. He said the average salary paid was $37 per month, while the average salary and the stable to do any work, were sent here. There was no appropriation. It was absolutely necessary that this should be indone and the law had to be stretched to do any work, were sent here. One feature of the asylum attracted universal attention. Surely it is as clean and bright from one end to the other as a well-kept ship, and the conspicuous neatness of the asylum received its merited praise.

Of course nothing can appease the sorrow of those unfortunate enough to have friends in an institution of this character. But all that nature can do is being done in Highland to charm the eyes of the inmates, and if beautiful surroundings and delightful climate can woo back wandering thoughts, Highland is an ideal place for the asylum, and if there be aught amiss in this grand castle there was no hint of it discernable to the writer.

THE END OF THEOURAPEL She looked at him with quick surprise, She looked at him with tear-brimmed eye Her tight-closed hand no mbtion shaped, No word her curling lips escaped; His eyes were bright, his voice was clear Ho only said: "I love you, dear!"

Her eyes were deep with anger's hue, They softened into tender blue; The haughty curve her lip forsook; Her hand lay open on the book; Then, as he spoke, he drew more near, and said again: "I loye you, dear!"

Where sweet love dwells wrath cannot stay!
Her smiles chased all the tears away.
She looked at him: "Ah, do not fear,
I, too, can say, 'I love you, dear!"
His smile replied: "Our hearts are near."
His words were still: "I love you, dear!"

Ah! when the fire of anger burns, And all life's sweet to bitter turns; When eyes are flashing, lips close set Prepared to storm and to regret, Then, happy we if Greatheart near, Have strength to say: "I love you, —(The Am

DO YOU WANT INDIAN GOODS

That Are Genuine, Reliable and Authentic?

f So, Go to a House that Does Its Own Col-

There is but one house on the Coast that collects its own stock of Indian goods and relics. Last year I spent the entire summer in Alaska, California, Arizona, New Mexico and Old Mexico, making the large collection of curios now displayed in my store. I have the most complete collection ever brought together. I know where every article came from and what use the Indians made of it. Our long experience in handling baskets and blankets enables us to collect only the choicest. We can save you one profit, that of the collector who usually supplies curio stores. We guarantee every article bought of us. We have four or five very old Navajo blankets with a history. Twenty old Tulare baskets. Three old Mexican zarapes. Call and see them. Mr. John K. Knox, Mechanic at Mare Island Navy Yard, Vallejo Cal., Tells of His Cure by Dr. Sanden's Electric Belt. It Cured Him After All Else Had Failed.

THERE are hundreds of people in California suffering daily tortures and annoyances on account of some Rheumatic affliction. They moan and suffer, and take pills and put plasters on their backs, and get no relief, and they must eventually do as Mr. Knox has done—they must use Dr. Sanden's Electric Belt. This Belt is now well known to every sufferer as the most complete, the most scientific, the nearest perfect Electric Belt made to-day, but many hesitate about using it owing to skepticism caused by the failure of other remedies to do good. Mr. Knox was skeptical, but see what he says now: What he says now:

VALLEJO, Cal., January 22, 1896.

DR. SANDEN:—When I got your Belt three months ago I had been suffering for two years from Sciatica. Had pains in legs and knees. I was not incapacitated from my work, but it was terribly annoying. I had tried other remedies, of course, but found nothing of any use till I got the Belt. In six or eight days after applying the Belt the pains had left me, and have not come back since. I have continued using the Belt and am generally benefited by it. I have twice as good an appetite as before, and really feel better than I have for twenty years. I am 62 years old.

JOHN K. KNOX, Vallejo, Cal.

Investigate the claims made for this famous Electric Belt. It is a genuine curative article, and justifies the careful inspection of every man or woman who is sick or needing new energy, new vitality. Call and see it, or get the little book, "Three Classes of Men," free.

Dangers of Impure Water.

The dangers arising from the use of impure water have never been exaggerated. It has been said by a very eminent physician that no one ever same may be said with almost equal truth in regard to typhoid fever, malaria and zymotic diseases generally. The watersheds which supply our towns and cities are contaminated to an appalling degree. All of the so-called pure water of wells and springs, however clear it may appear to the eye, contains mineral and organic impurities. Often the clearest is the most dangerous. Not long ago the State Board of Health of Illinois condemned nearly all the wells and waterworks supplies in that State, a sweeping conwhich, if pure supplies could be sub-stituted, might be followed in other States with an enormous decrease of mortality. The numerous cases of ty-phoid and malarial fevers prevalent every autumn are generally the result of the use of impure water during the summer.
